Claimant: Appellant (2)

871 IAC 24.6(6) – Reporting for Re-employment Services

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Charles D. White filed a timely appeal from an unemployment insurance decision dated December 29, 2011, reference 02, that denied benefits to him effective December 25, 2011 upon a finding that he had failed to report for a re-employment and eligibility assessment. Before a final hearing could be scheduled in the matter, the agency issued a subsequent decision on January 25, 2012 allowing benefits to Mr. White as of December 25, 2011. Under the circumstances, the administrative law judge concludes that a formal hearing is not required.

ISSUE:

Is the claimant eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The claimant is eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits effective December 25, 2011. The relief requested in his appeal letter has been granted.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

A person who fails to report for re-employment services is considered to be unavailable for work and ineligible for unemployment insurance purposes. The evidence in this record establishes that Mr. White has now completed a re-employment and eligibility assessment. Benefits are allowed.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated December 29, 2011, reference 02, is reversed. The claimant is entitled to receive unemployment insurance benefits, provided he is otherwise eligible.
