APPEAL NO. 14A-UI-02500-DWT

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

PILOT TRAVEL CENTERS LLC
Employer

OC: 11/17/13
Claimant: Respondent (6)

Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) – Default Decision
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7) – Dismissal of Appeal on Default

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer appealed a representative's February 27, 2014 determination (reference 06) that held the claimant qualified to receive benefits and the employer's account subject to charge because the claimant had been discharged for nondisqualifying reasons. Notices of hearing were mailed to the parties' last-known addresses of record informing them a telephone hearing would be held at 9:30 a.m. on March 27, 2014. A review of the Appeals Bureau's conference call system shows the employer/appellant failed to respond to the hearing notice and provide a telephone number at which a representative could be reached for the hearing. The employer did not participate in the hearing.

ISSUE:

Should the appeal be dismissed when the employer/appellant did not participate in the hearing?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The parties were properly notified of the scheduled hearing on this appeal. The employer/appellant failed to provide a telephone number at which the appellant could be reached for the hearing. The employer/appellant did not participate in the hearing or request a postponement of the hearing as required by the hearing notice.

The representative's decision concluded that based on this employment separation the claimant was qualified to receive unemployment insurance benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedures Act at Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) provides that if a party fails to appear or participate in a hearing after proper service of notice, the judge may enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party. The statute further states that if a party makes a timely request to vacate the decision and shows good cause for failing to appear, the judge shall vacate the decision and conduct another hearing.

The Agency rules at Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7) provide that if the appealing party has not responded to a notice of telephone hearing by providing the appeals bureau with the names and telephone numbers of the persons who are participating in the hearing by the scheduled starting time of the hearing or is not available at the telephone number provided, the judge may decide the appealing party is in default and dismiss the appeal as provided in Iowa Code § 17A.12(3). The record may be reopened if the absent party makes a request to reopen the hearing and shows good cause for reopening the hearing. The rules further state that failure to read or follow the instructions on the notice of hearing is not good cause for reopening the record. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7)c.

The employer/appellant appealed the unemployment insurance decision but failed to participate in the hearing. The employer/appellant has defaulted on its appeal. Based on Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) and Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.14(7), the decision remains in full force and effect.

If the employer/appellant disagrees with this decision, a request must be made to the administrative law judge that the hearing be reopened within 15 days after the mailing date of this decision. The written request should be mailed to the administrative law judge at the address listed at the end of this decision and must explain the emergency or other good cause that prevented the employer/appellant from participating in the hearing at its scheduled time.

DECISION:

The representative's February 27, 2014 determination (reference 06) is affirmed. The determination granting the claimant benefits based on the reasons for this employment separation remains in effect. Since the employer is not a base period employer, the employer's account will not be charged during the claimant's current benefit year.
