D E C I S I O N

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The notice of hearing in this matter was mailed September 11, 2012. The notice set a hearing for October 1, 2012. The Claimant contacted the agency the day before the hearing to provided 3 different phones numbers at which she could be reached for the hearing. On the day of the hearing, however, the Claimant did not appear for or participate in the hearing. The Claimant the Claimant did not participate is because the Claimant was not called, and she did not know the hearing was taking place.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 10A.601(4) (2011) provides:

4. Appeal board review. The appeal board may on its own motion affirm, modify, or set aside any decision of a administrative law judge on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in such case, or direct the taking of additional evidence, or may permit any of the parties to such decision to initiate further appeals before it. The appeal board shall permit such further appeal by any of the parties interested in a decision of an administrative law judge and by the representative whose decision has been overruled or modified by the administrative law judge. The appeal board shall review the case pursuant to rules adopted by the appeal board. The appeal board shall promptly notify the interested parties of its findings and decision.

Here the Claimant did not participate in the hearing through no fault of the Claimant. She complied with the notice instructions by providing telephone numbers to be called for her participation. DECISION:

The decision of the administrative law judge dated October 2, 2012 is not vacated. This matter is remanded to an administrative law judge in the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Bureau. The administrative law judge shall conduct a hearing following due notice. After the hearing, the administrative law judge shall issue a decision which provides the parties appeal rights.
