APPEAL 22A-UI-08758-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

Employer

OC: 02/06/22
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total and Partial Unemployment
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(26) – Availability Disqualifications Same Hours and Wages
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) – Same Base Period Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from the March 24, 2022, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based upon the determination that claimant was not partially unemployed under the meaning of the law. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on May 19, 2022, and was consolidated with the hearing for appeal number 22A-UI-08759-AR-T. The claimant, Terry Olson, participated personally. The employer, I-35/105 Welcome Center, Inc., did not participate. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant totally, partially, or temporarily unemployed effective February 6, 2022?
Is the claimant available for work effective February 6, 2022?
Is the employer's account subject to charge?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant is employed full time in maintenance. He has been employed for a few years, though he could not provide a precise start date. He remains employed as of the date of his unemployment appeal hearing.

Claimant was ill prior to filing his claim for unemployment insurance benefits. He obtained a doctor's release to return to work with some restrictions on the type of work he could do. When he returned the doctor's note to the employer, he was not given hours. At some point, he obtained a doctor's note releasing him to work without restrictions. He testified that he believed the doctor had released him to work without restrictions by the time he filed his claim for unemployment benefits with an effective date of February 6, 2022. The employer still refused to schedule him.

Claimant filed weekly continuing claims for benefits from February 6, 2022, through March 26, 2022. He testified that he was not offered any work during the weeks in which he filed claims for benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant was totally unemployed for the dates of February 6, 2022, to March 26, 2022.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(2)(a), (b), and (c) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.

(a) However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and section 96.8, subsection 5.

(b) An employer's account shall not be charged with benefits paid to an individual who left the work of the employer voluntarily without good cause attributable to the employer or to an individual who was discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment, or to an individual who failed without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work or to accept suitable work with that employer, but shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

(c) The amount of benefits paid to an individual, which is solely due to wage credits considered to be in an individual's base period due to the exclusion and substitution of calendar quarters from the individual's base period under section 96.23, shall be charged against the account of the employer responsible for paying the workers' compensation benefits for temporary total disability or during a healing period under section 85.33, section 85.34, subsection 1, or section 85A.17, or responsible for paying indemnity insurance benefits.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.22(1)a provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

a. Illness, injury or pregnancy. Each case is decided upon an individual basis, recognizing that various work opportunities present different physical requirements. A statement from a medical practitioner is considered prima facie evidence of the physical ability of the individual to perform the work required. A pregnant individual must meet the same criteria for determining ableness as do all other individuals.

Claimant's doctor's note releasing him to return to work is prima facie evidence that he is able to and available for work. The employer chose not to return claimant to the schedule. Claimant worked no hours and earned no wages between February 6, 2022, and March 26, 2022. Accordingly, claimant is totally unemployed from February 6, 2022, through March 26, 2022, and benefits are allowed, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The March 24, 2022, (reference 01), unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant was totally unemployed for the period of February 6, 2022, through March 26, 2022, and benefits are allowed, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
