STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Douglas D. Norris (claimant/appellant) filed an appeal from the unemployment insurance decision dated October 5, 2018, reference 03, that determined he was not eligible for unemployment insurance benefits for the week-ending September 15, 2018 because he reported he was not able to or available for work. Before a hearing was held, Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) issued a favorable decision to the claimant, dated October 15, 2018, reference 06, stating that he is eligible for unemployment insurance benefits because he was able to and available for work the week ending September 15, 2018. This decision made the issue on appeal moot. Therefore, no testimony or additional evidence was necessary. No hearing was held.

ISSUES:

Should the most recent unemployment insurance decision be affirmed?
Should the appeal be dismissed as moot?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

These findings of fact are based on the pertinent agency documents relating to this claimant and his appeal. An unemployment insurance decision dated October 5, 2018, reference 03, determined that the claimant was not eligible for unemployment insurance benefits for the week-ending September 15, 2018 because he reported he was not able to or available for work. The claimant appealed this decision. Before a hearing was held, Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) issued a favorable decision to the claimant, dated October 15, 2018, reference 06, stating that he is eligible for unemployment insurance benefits because he was able to and available for work the week ending September 15, 2018. This decision resolved the only issue on appeal in the claimant's favor, making the appeal moot.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge dismisses the appeal.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.8(1) provides:

Withdrawals, dismissals, and postponements.

(1) An appeal may be withdrawn at any time prior to the issuance of a decision upon the request of the appellant and with the approval of an administrative law judge or the manager or chief administrative law judge of the appeals bureau. Requests for withdrawal may be made in writing or orally, provided the oral request is recorded by the presiding officer.

An appeal may be dismissed upon the request of a party or in the agency's discretion when the issue or issues on appeal have been resolved in the appellant's favor.

Generally, courts and administrative tribunals do not decide issues when the underlying controversy is moot. Rhiner v. State, 703 N.W.2d 174, 176 (Iowa 2005). "A case is moot if it no longer presents a justiciable controversy because the issues involved are academic or nonexistent." Iowa Bankers Ass'n v. Iowa Credit Union Dep't, 335 N.W.2d 439, 442 (Iowa 1983). The decision appealed was reversed in a subsequent agency decision, making this appeal moot. The appeal of the original representative's decision dated October 5, 2018, reference 03, is dismissed. The most recent decision, dated October 15, 2018, reference 06, is affirmed.

DECISION:

The appeal of the unemployment insurance decision dated October 5, 2018, reference 03, is dismissed as moot. The decision issued on October 15, 2018, reference 06, is affirmed.
