APPEAL 24A-UI-00583-LJ-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 11/12/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On January 16, 2024, claimant Taveon L. Winfrey filed an appeal from the December 11, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits, determining claimant quit employment on October 29, 2023 for personal reasons. The Unemployment Insurance Appeals Bureau mailed notice of the hearing on January 22, 2024. Administrative Law Judge Elizabeth A. Johnson held a telephonic hearing at 8:00 a.m. on Thursday, February 1, 2024. Claimant Taveon L. Winfrey participated. Employer Walmart Inc. participated through Hillary Tigerina, Hearing Process Manager. Employer's Exhibits 1 and 2 were received and admitted into the record without objection. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Did the claimant file a timely appeal?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The unemployment insurance decision finding claimant quit employment for personal reasons and denying benefits was sent to his address of record on December 11, 2023. The first sentence of the decision states, "If this decision denies benefits and is not reversed on appeal, it may result in an overpayment which you will be required to repay." The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Bureau by December 21, 2023. Claimant did not file his appeal until January 16, 2024.

The address of record at the time of the December 11 decision did not list claimant's apartment letter on it, as claimant did not include "Apartment A" in his address when he opened his claim. Therefore, claimant did not receive the December 11 decision when it was mailed to him. Claimant went into the Davenport IowaWorks office to file his weekly claim on Tuesday, January 16. He learned at that time that his claim was locked because he did not list his address correctly on his claim. A male employee at the local office gave claimant instructions on how to appeal, and claimant appealed that same day.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant failed to file a timely appeal.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: "[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision."

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared parties have a duty to appeal representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute; the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

Here, the claimant did not receive the reference 01 decision. The reason he did not receive it, however, was because he did not correctly list his address with IWD. Claimant is responsible for providing accurate address information to IWD and to maintain that address throughout the duration of an active claim for benefits. Claimant's delay in filing the appeal was not due to an error or misinformation from the Department or due to delay or other action of the United States

Postal Service. No other good cause reason has been established for the delay. Claimant's appeal was not filed on time and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to decide the other issue in this matter.

DECISION:

The December 11, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. Claimant failed to file a timely appeal. The decision of the representative remains in effect.
