Iowa Code § 96.5(5) – Reporting Wages Earned Iowa Code § 96.5(7) – Payment – Vacation Pay

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On June 30, 2022, The Iowa Clinic (employer/appellant) filed an appeal from the June 23, 2022, reference 06, unemployment insurance decision that determined that the claimant was eligible for a reduced weekly benefit for the week-ending June 18, 2022, due to the claimant being paid out vacation pay for that week. A telephone hearing was held at on August 2, 2022 pursuant to due notice. The claimant, Mandy Benz, participated and testified. The employer, The Iowa Clinic, participated through Amanda Willis, Human Resources. Employer's Exhibit 1 was admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Did the claimant correctly report gross wages, vacation pay, and holiday pay earned?
Should the claimant's weekly benefit amount have been reduced for the week ending June 18, 2022?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant voluntarily quit her employment on May 25, 2022. The claimant was allowed benefits and her weekly benefit amount was calculated at $503.00. The claimant was paid severance pay and vacation pay following her separation. The claimant was paid $776.00 in vacation pay that the employer paid out in subsequent weeks after the first five days following the separation. The vacation pay paid to the claimant following those initial five days is not deductible.

The claimant's separation from employment has been found to be disqualifying and the claimant has been overpaid regular unemployment benefits in the amount of $2,012.00. See 22A-UI-14235-JD-T.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.5(5) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

5. Other compensation.

a. For any week with respect to which the individual is receiving or has received payment in the form of any of the following:

(1) Wages in lieu of notice, separation allowance, severance pay, or dismissal pay.

(2) Compensation for temporary disability under the workers' compensation law of any state or under a similar law of the United States.

(3) A governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity, or any other similar periodic payment made under a plan maintained or contributed to by a base period or chargeable employer where, except for benefits under the federal Social Security Act or the federal Railroad Retirement Act of 1974 or the corresponding provisions of prior law, the plan's eligibility requirements or benefit payments are affected by the base period employment or the remuneration for the base period employment. However, this subparagraph shall only be applicable if the base period employer has made one hundred percent of the contribution to the plan.

b. Provided, that if the remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under this chapter, the individual is entitled to receive for the week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of the remuneration. Provided further, if benefits were paid for any week under this chapter for a period when benefits, remuneration or compensation under paragraph "a", subparagraph (1), (2), or (3), were paid on a retroactive basis for the same period, or any part thereof, the department shall recover the excess amount of benefits paid by the department for the period, and no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid. However, compensation for service-connected disabilities or compensation for accrued leave based on military service by the beneficiary with the armed forces of the United States, irrespective of the amount of the benefit, does not disqualify any individual otherwise qualified from any of the benefits contemplated herein. A deduction shall not be made from the amount of benefits payable for a week for individuals receiving federal social security pensions to take into account the individuals' contributions to the pension program.

Iowa Code section 96.5(7) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

7. Vacation pay.

a. When an employer makes a payment or becomes obligated to make a payment to an individual for vacation pay, or for vacation pay allowance, or as pay in lieu of vacation, such payment or amount shall be deemed "wages" as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 41, and shall be applied as provided in paragraph "c" hereof.

b. When, in connection with a separation or layoff of an individual, the individual's employer makes a payment or payments to the individual, or becomes obligated to make a payment to the individual as, or in the nature of, vacation pay, or vacation pay allowance, or as pay in lieu of vacation. The amount of a payment or obligation to make payment, is deemed "wages" as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 41, and shall be applied as provided in paragraph "c" of this subsection 7.

c. Of the wages described in paragraph "a" or paragraph "b", a sum equal to the wages of such individual for a normal workday shall be attributed to, or deemed to be payable to the individual with respect to, the first and each subsequent workday in such period until such amount so paid or owing is exhausted, not to exceed five workdays. Any individual receiving or entitled to receive wages as provided herein shall be ineligible for benefits for any week in which the sums equal or exceed the individual's weekly benefit amount. If the amount is less than the weekly benefit amount of such individual, the individual's benefits shall be reduced by such amount.

d. Notwithstanding contrary provisions in paragraphs "a", "b", and "c", if an individual is separated from employment and is scheduled to receive vacation payments during the period of unemployment attributable to the employer then payments made by the employer to the individual or an obligation to make a payment by the employer to the individual for vacation pay, vacation pay allowance or pay in lieu of vacation shall not be deemed wages as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 41, for any period in excess of five workdays and such payments or the value of such obligations shall not be deducted for any period in excess of one week from the unemployment benefits the individual is otherwise entitled to receive under this chapter.

e. If an employer pays or is obligated to pay a bonus to an individual at the same time the employer pays or is obligated to pay vacation pay, a vacation pay allowance, or pay in lieu of vacation, the bonus shall not be deemed wages for purposes of determining benefit eligibility and amount, and the bonus shall not be deducted from unemployment benefits the individual is otherwise entitled to receive under this chapter.

The $776.00 in vacation pay that was paid to the claimant in the benefit weeks following May 28, 2022, is not deductible from her weekly benefit amount. The claimant is eligible for her entire weekly benefit amount for the week ending June 18, 2022, if otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The June 23, 2022, reference 06, decision is reversed. Claimant's weekly benefit amount for the week ending June 18, 2022, should not have been reduced due to vacation pay paid to the claimant. Benefits are allowed provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.
