Section 96.4-7 – Failure to Participate in Reemployment Services

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant appealed an unemployment insurance decision dated March 27, 2006, reference 01, that denied her unemployment insurance benefits because she failed to participate in reemployment services. A telephone hearing was held on April 20, 2006. The claimant participated in the hearing.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The claimant filed a new claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of February 19, 2006. The claimant was scheduled for a reemployment services appointment on March 29, 2006. The claimant missed the appointment because she was out of town when the notice was sent and did not receive it until March 29, 2006. She immediately called and rescheduled the appointment for the next week and attended that appointment.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue in this case is whether the claimant should be denied benefits because she failed to participate in reemployment services.

Iowa Code section 96.4-7 provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

7. The individual participates in reemployment services as directed by the department pursuant to a profiling system, established by the department, which identifies individuals who are likely to exhaust benefits and be in need of reemployment services.

The claimant is eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits for the week ending March 25, 2006, because she had good cause to fail to participate in reemployment services because she had not received the notice.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated March 27, 2006, reference 01, is reversed. The claimant is eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits for the week ending March 25, 2006.
