ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 03/08/20
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct
Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Filing – Timely Appeal
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35 – Filing

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the April 15, 2020 (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on September 21, 2020, at 11:00 a.m. Claimant participated. Employer participated through Robin Christensen, Store Manager. Employer's Exhibits 1 – 5 were admitted. Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant's separation was a discharge for disqualifying job-related misconduct or a voluntary quit without good cause attributable to employer.
Whether claimant filed a timely appeal.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The Unemployment Insurance Decision was mailed to claimant at the correct address on April 15, 2020. Claimant received the decision in the mail but does not recall the date of receipt. Mail from Des Moines, Iowa is typically received in Atlantic, Iowa in two to three days. Claimant has no reason to believe that was not the case for the decision mailed on April 15, 2020, except that things were delayed due to the pandemic.

The decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by Iowa Workforce Development Appeals Section by April 25, 2020. If the date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the appeal period is extended to the next working day. April 25, 2020 was a Saturday. Therefore, the deadline was extended to Monday, April 27, 2020. Claimant appealed the decision online on August 13, 2020. The appeal was received by Iowa Workforce Development on August 13, 2020. Claimant did not submit her appeal prior until April 27, 2020 due to internet issues and a computer glitch. Claimant did not submit the appeal via fax or mail because she did not understand how.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that claimant's appeal was untimely.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: "[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision."

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

Claimant received the decision prior to the deadline. Upon receiving the decision, claimant waited over three months to file an appeal. Claimant's delay in submitting her appeal was not due to any agency error or misinformation or delay of the United States Postal Service. The appeal was not timely. Therefore, the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal.

DECISION:

Claimant's appeal was not timely. The April 15, 2020 (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of the representative.
