OC: 11/13/22
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(19) – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On December 12, 2022, the claimant filed an appeal from the unemployment insurance decision dated December 7, 2022, (Reference 01) that denied unemployment insurance benefits. Notice of hearing was mailed to the parties' last known addresses of record for a telephone hearing to be held at 2:00 p.m. on January 5, 2023. The claimant participated personally. The employer participated through Robin Billerbeck, Human Resources Specialist. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Did claimant voluntarily quit the employment without good cause attributable to employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge finds that:

The claimant worked as a Front Desk Receptionist for this employer from June of 2021, until November 11, 2022, when she quit the employment. At the time of the separation, she reported to Amber Dietz. The claimant's last day of work was October 26, 2022. The claimant went on medical leave the next day and was to return to work on November 11, 2022. The claimant was advised by the employer that she would run out of paid leave but would be eligible for unpaid leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act when she returned in November. Although the claimant testified that she was discharged by the employer on October 26, 2022, the claimant was paid for leave through November 10, 2022. The claimant refused to return on November 11, 2022, and instead advised the employer that she felt she had been fired when advised that her paid leave would run out. The claimant is unable to produce any evidence that she was discharged by the employer at any time. She was cleared to return to work by her physician as of November 11, 2022. Instead, the claimant quit the employment as of November 11, 2022. Her job was not in jeopardy and continuing work was available had she not quit the employment.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

- (4) The claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

The claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

It is the duty of the administrative law judge, as the trier of fact, to determine the credibility of witnesses, weigh the evidence and decide the facts in issue. Arndt v. City of LeClaire, 728 N.W.2d 389, 394-395 (Iowa 2007).

The administrative law judge may believe all, part or none of any witness's testimony. State v. Holtz, 548 N.W.2d 162, 163 (Iowa App. 1996). In assessing the credibility of witnesses, the administrative law judge should consider the evidence using his or her own observations, common sense and experience. Id. In determining the facts, and deciding what testimony to believe, the fact finder may consider the following factors: whether the testimony is reasonable and consistent with other evidence you believe; whether a witness has made inconsistent statements; the witness's appearance, conduct, age, intelligence, memory and knowledge of the facts; and the witness's interest in the trial, their motive, candor, bias and prejudice. Id.

This Administrative Law Judge is not persuaded that the claimant thought she was fired two weeks before she quit. It is notable that the claimant filed her claim for benefits the week after quitting on November 11, 2022, not two weeks earlier on the date of the purported discharge. The claimant was not discharged by the employer. The claimant did not want to return to work without the possibility of paid leave, so she quit the employment. When the medical leave expired, the claimant did not return to the employer and effectively abandoned the job. There was no good cause attributable to the employer for the quit. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The December 7, 2022, (Reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. The claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as she has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible.
