APPEAL 23A-UI-06029-PT-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 03/05/23
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.3(5) – Benefit Duration - Business Closing
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.29(1) and (2) – Business Closing

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed a timely appeal from the June 1, 2023, (reference 07) unemployment insurance decision that denied claimant's request to have her unemployment insurance claim redetermined as a business closing. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on July 5, 2023. Claimant participated personally. The employer participated through Franchise Owner Kathy Bermel. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Whether claimant is eligible to have the monetary determination recalculated due to business closing.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was employed by Lemreb Inc. as a part-time customer service/fruit arranger at the employer's Ankeny, Iowa location from April 2022 until February 18, 2023, when the employer laid her off in connection with the employer's decision to discontinue the store's operations. Prior to February 18, 2023, the employer notified claimant that the employer was discontinuing operations at the Ankeny location, removed its equipment from the facility, and transported those items to a store in Nebraska. In the spring of 2023, the employer's lease on the premises expired. The employer did not sell or otherwise transfer the Ankeny store's physical premises. On February 18, 2023, the employer completely closed its business in Ankeny, Iowa. There is no business operating on the premises where Lemreb Inc. previously operated in Ankeny, Iowa. Claimant filed her initial claim for benefits effective March 5, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.3(5)a provides:

a. Duration of benefits. The maximum total amount of benefits payable to an eligible individual during a benefit year shall not exceed the total of the wage credits accrued to the individual's account during the individual's base period, or sixteen times the individual's weekly benefit amount, whichever is the lesser. The director shall maintain a separate account for each individual who earns wages in insured work. The director shall compute wage credits for each individual by crediting the individual's account with one-third of the wages for insured work paid to the individual during the individual's base period. However, the director shall recompute wage credits for an individual who is laid off due to the individual's employer going out of business at the factory, establishment, or other premises at which the individual was last employed, by crediting the individual's account with one-half, instead of one-third, of the wages for insured work paid to the individual during the individual's base period. Benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the base period wage credits in the individual's account which have not been previously charged, in the inverse chronological order as the wages on which the wage credits are based were paid. However if the state "off" indicator is in effect and if the individual is laid off due to the individual's employer going out of business at the factory, establishment, or other premises at which the individual was last employed, the maximum benefits payable shall be extended to twenty-six times the individual's weekly benefit amount, but not to exceed the total of the wage credits accrued to the individual's account.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.29(1) and (2) provide:

Business closing.

(1) Whenever an employer at a factory, establishment, or other premises goes out of business at which the individual was last employed and is laid off, the individual's account is credited with one-half, instead of one-third, of the wages for insured work paid to the individual during the individual's base period, which may increase the maximum benefit amount up to 39 times the weekly benefit amount or one-half of the total base period wages, whichever is less. This rule also applies retroactively for monetary redetermination purposes during the current benefit year of the individual who is temporarily laid off with the expectation of returning to work once the temporary or seasonal factors have been eliminated and is prevented from returning to work because of the going out of business of the employer within the same benefit year of the individual. This rule also applies to an individual who works in temporary employment between the layoff from the business closing employer and the Claim for Benefits. For the purposes of this rule, temporary employment means employment of a duration not to exceed four weeks.

(2) Going out of business means any factory, establishment, or other premises of an employer which closes its door and ceases to function as a business; however, an employer is not considered to have gone out of business at the factory, establishment, or other premises in any case in which the employer sells or otherwise transfers the business to another employer, and the successor employer continues to operate the business.

The evidence in the record establishes the claimant was laid off effective February 18, 2023, due to a business closing within the meaning of the law. The employer discontinued operations at the Ankeny, Iowa location where the claimant performed her duties. The employer did not sell or otherwise transfer operations at that location. The employer continues to not operate from the business premises where the claimant was employed. Since there is no longer a business operating at the Ankeny, Iowa location, the administrative law judge concludes that claimant is entitled to a recalculation of benefits based upon business closing.

DECISION:

The June 1, 2023, (reference 07) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant was laid off due to a business closure. The claimant's benefit eligibility shall be redetermined as being based on a layoff pursuant to a business closing.
