APPEAL 24A-UI-01299-LJ-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

DEE ZEE INC

Employer

OC: 11/19/23

Claimant: Appellant (4)

lowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit lowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On February 1, 2024, claimant Tyler D. Jennings filed an appeal from the January 8, 2024 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits, determining claimant quit his position at Dee Zee Inc. for personal reasons. The Unemployment Insurance Appeals Bureau mailed notice of the hearing on February 8, 2024. Administrative Law Judge Elizabeth A. Johnson held a telephonic hearing at 8:00 a.m. on Friday, February 23, 2024. Claimant Tyler D. Jennings personally participated. Employer Dee Zee Inc. participated through Lynn Lacey-Fligg, HR Assistant. Employer's Exhibits 1 and 2 were received but were not admitted into the record, as claimant had not received them prior to the hearing. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Did the claimant file a timely appeal?

Did the claimant quit to accept other employment?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for Dee Zee Inc. on April 3, 2023. He worked full-time hours as a C&C machine operator. Claimant's employment ended on May 12, 2023, when he quit to accept other employment.

Claimant contacted Lacey-Fligg via telephone on May 10, 2023 and reported that he had accepted other, higher-paying employment with Des Moines Steel Fence. He said his last day of work would be Friday, May 12. The employer allowed claimant to work through Friday and end his employment that day. Continued work was available with the employer, had claimant not quit for this other job.

Documentation in IWD records shows that claimant worked for Des Moines Steel Fence in the third and fourth quarters of 2023. Claimant is currently on seasonal layoff from Des Moines Steel Fence.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant quit to accept other employment.

Timeliness of Appeal

lowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: "[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision."

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

- 1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:
- (a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.
- (b) If transmitted via the State Identification Date Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.
- (c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The lowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (lowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (lowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (lowa 1982).

Here, claimant did not have an opportunity to appeal the fact-finder's decision because he did not receive that decision. Without notice of a disqualification, no meaningful opportunity for appeal exists. See Smith v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973). The claimant timely appealed the overpayment decision, which was the first notice of disqualification. Therefore, the appeal shall be accepted as timely.

Eligibility for Benefits

Iowa Code § 96.5(1)a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

- 1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:
- a. The individual left employment in good faith for the sole purpose of accepting other or better employment, which the individual did accept, and the individual performed services in the new employment. Benefits relating to wage credits earned with the employer that the individual has left shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding § 96.8, subsection 5.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.28(5) provides:

The claimant shall be eligible for benefits even though the claimant voluntarily quit if the claimant left for the sole purpose of accepting an offer of other or better employment, which the claimant did accept, and from which the claimant is separated, before or after having started the new employment. The employment does not have to be covered employment and does not include self-employment.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-23.43(5) provides:

The claimant shall be eligible for benefits even though the claimant voluntarily quit if the claimant left for the sole purpose of accepting an offer of other or better employment, which the claimant did accept, and from which the claimant is separated, before or after having started the new employment. No charge shall accrue to the account of the former voluntarily quit employer.

Claimant left his position with the employer for the sole purpose of accepting higher-paying employment with Des Moines Steel Fence. He subsequently began working for that employer, as established through testimony and corroborated by agency records. The law and rules are written to align with public policy encouraging individuals to advance in employment and obtain better-paying jobs while growing their personal skills and experience. Accordingly, benefits are allowed and the account of the employer shall not be charged.

DECISION:

The January 8, 2024 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is modified in favor of the claimant/appellant. Claimant quit for the sole purpose of obtaining other, higher-paying employment. Benefits are allowed, provided claimant is otherwise eligible. The account of Dee Zee Inc. (# 361573) shall not be charged.
