APPEAL 23A-UI-02606-AW-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

UNITED BANK OF IOWA
Employer

OC: 02/12/23
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Employer filed an appeal from the March 7, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that found employer's protest untimely. Iowa Department of Inspections and Appeals properly notified the parties of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on April 13, 2023. Claimant did not participate. Employer participated through Senior Vice President of Human Resources Molly Woerdehofs and Assistant Vice President of Human Resources Valerie George. Employer's Exhibit 1 was admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Whether employer filed a timely protest.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The Notice of Claim was mailed to employer at its correct address on February 16, 2023. Employer received the Notice of Claim on or about February 21, 2023 or February 22, 2023. Employer completed and signed the Statement of Protest on February 27, 2023. The Notice of Claim lists a due date of February 27, 2023. Employer attempted to submit its protest via fax on February 27, 2022. (Exhibit 1) Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) did not receive the fax. Employer was not certain that the fax was successful because the fax machine did not print a confirmation. On March 3, 2023, employer submitted its protest via fax again. IWD received employer's protest on March 3, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1)(c) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

Another portion of this same Code section dealing with timeliness of an appeal from a representative's decision states that such an appeal must be filed within ten days after notification of that decision was mailed. In addressing an issue of timeliness of an appeal under that portion of this Code section, the Iowa Supreme Court held that this statute prescribing the time for notice of appeal clearly limits the time to do so, and that compliance with the appeal notice provision is mandatory and jurisdictional. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979). The administrative law judge considers the reasoning and holding of the Iowa Supreme Court in that decision to be controlling on this portion of that same Iowa Code section which deals with a time limit in which to file a protest after notification of the filing of the claim has been mailed.

Employer received the notice of claim prior to the due date. Employer submitted its protest via fax so the submission date is the date it is received by IWD. The fax was received on March 3, 2023, which is after the due date. Employer has not established that its delay was due to division error or misinformation or due to delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. Employer's protest is untimely; therefore, the administrative law judge is without jurisdiction to entertain any appeal regarding the separation from employment.

DECISION:

The March 7, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. Employer's protest was untimely.

2. Si nadie presenta una apelación de la decisión del juez ante la Junta de Apelaciones Laborales dentro de los quince (15) días, la decisión se convierte en acción final de la agencia y usted tiene la opción de presentar una petición de revisión judicial en el Tribunal de Distrito dentro de los treinta (30) días después de que la decisión adquiriera firmeza.
