DECISION

OC: 09/17/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On January 10, 2024, the claimant, Stacy Wermes, filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated December 20, 2023, (reference 03) that concluded claimant was overpaid regular unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $582.00 for the one week ending October 28, 2023. After due notice, a telephone hearing was scheduled for January 29, 2024. The claimant participated personally. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether the claimant's appeal is timely.

Whether the claimant was overpaid benefits in the amount of $582.00 for the week ending October 28, 2023.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The unemployment insurance decision (reference 03) was mailed to the claimant's address of record on December 20, 2023. Claimant believes she received the decision in either the last week of December 2023 or the first week of January 2024.

The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Bureau by December 30, 2023. However, if the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the appeal period is extended to the next working day. As December 30, 2023, was a Saturday and Monday, January 1, 2024 was a legal holiday, the deadline for claimant to submit her appeal was extended to Tuesday, January 2, 2024. Claimant electronically submitted her appeal in the afternoon of Wednesday, January 10, 2024, which is after the extended appeal deadline. Claimant explained that she waited to file the appeal because she found the process confusing and she was trying to resolve the issue through a series of phone calls with Iowa Workforce Development. By the time claimant learned that she needed to file an appeal, the appeal deadline had passed.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's appeal was untimely.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: "[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision."

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also, In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

The weight of the evidence indicates that the December 20, 2023 (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision was delivered to the claimant's address of record in a timely manner, either on or before the January 2, 2024, extended appeal deadline, but claimant did not submit her appeal until after the deadline. Claimant's delay was not due to agency error or misinformation or delay of the United States Postal Service pursuant to Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2). Claimant had a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion but waited until after the deadline to file the appeal. As claimant's appeal was not timely filed, pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.8(2), the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal. See, Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979); see also, Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).

DECISION:

The December 20, 2023, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The appeal in this case was not timely, and the decision of the representative that determined claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $582.00 remains in effect.
