APPEAL NO. 23A-UI-08712-PT-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

REMEDY INTELLIGENT STAFFING INC
Employer

OC: 08/06/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) – Part-Time Worker – Same Wages and Hours
Iowa Code § 96.4-3 – Able and Available
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)A(2) – Employer Chargeability
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total and Partial Unemployment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated September 6, 2023, (reference 01) that denied benefits holding claimant was not able and available for work. After due notice, a hearing was held on September 28, 2023. Claimant participated personally. The employer participated through Branch Manager Dawn Starr. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant is still employed at the same hours and wages?
Whether claimant is eligible to receive partial benefits?
Whether claimant is able to and available for work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Since the summer of 2022, claimant has worked two separate full-time jobs. Claimant's first job is with Whirlpool Corporation, where claimant works as a machine operator approximately forty hours per week earning $21.95 per hour. Claimant's second job is with Remedy Intelligent Staffing Inc. For the past year, claimant has worked in a job assignment with General Mills, where she works approximately forty-eight hours per week as a system lead earning $16.50 per hour.

Claimant was temporarily laid off from her job at Whirlpool Corporation during the weeks ending August 12, 2023, and September 9, 2023. Claimant performed no work and earned no wages from Whirlpool Corporation during either week. However, claimant worked approximately forty-eight hours in her job assignment through Remedy Intelligent Staffing Inc. during both weeks, earning approximately $792.00 each week. Claimant's weekly benefit amount is $582.00.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant is not partially unemployed for the week ending June 24, 2023.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c"(currently 96.1A(37)c). The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

- a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.
- b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which, while employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which the individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

- c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Because the claimant earned more than $15.00 over her weekly benefit amount for the weeks ending August 12, 2023 and September 9, 2023, the claimant is not considered partially unemployed. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The September 6, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The claimant is not partially unemployed. Benefits are denied.
