IOWA DEPARTMENT OF INSPECTIONS AND APPEALS ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS DIVISION, UI APPEALS BUREAU

MALINA CARPER Claimant

APPEAL 22A-UI-09965-DB-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

ROBERTS LAMAR WINTERS KEITH Employer

OC: 07/25/21 Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the April 11, 2022 (reference 06) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits to the claimant based upon her separation from employment. The parties received due notice of the hearing and a telephone hearing was held on June 21, 2022. The claimant participated personally. The employer did not participate. Claimant's Exhibits A, B, and C were admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records.

ISSUE:

Did the claimant voluntarily quit without good cause attributable to the employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began her employment with this employer also known as Davaco as a full-time product merchandiser on approximately January 22, 2022. She was assigned to travel with a co-worker whom she would share a hotel and car with. The co-worker harassed her by yelling profanities at her, told her she was crazy, spit in her face and tried to fight her on more than one occasion. Claimant notified her supervisors that she was being harassed; however, she was told she was required to share a hotel room and vehicle with this person anyway. Claimant tendered her resignation to the employer due to the harassment.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes as follows:

lowa Code §96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Claimant had an intention to quit and carried out that intention to quit by tendering her resignation to the employer. As such, claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). "Good cause attributable to the employer" does not require fault, negligence, wrongdoing or bad faith by the employer. Dehmel v. Employment Appeal Bd., 433 N.W.2d 700, 702 (Iowa 1988)("[G]ood cause attributable to the employer can exist even though the employer is free from all negligence or wrongdoing in connection therewith"); Shontz v. Iowa Employment Sec. Commission, 248 N.W.2d 88, 91 (Iowa 1976)(benefits payable even though employer "free from fault"); Raffety v. Iowa Employment Security Commission, 76 N.W.2d 787, 788 (Iowa 1956)("The good cause attributable to the employer need not be based upon a fault or wrong of such employer."). Good cause may be attributable to "the employment itself" rather than the employer personally and still satisfy the requirements of the Act. Raffety, 76 N.W.2d at 788 (Iowa 1956).

Claimant may still be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits if she voluntarily quit due to intolerable working conditions. Generally, notice of an intent to quit is required by Cobb v. Employment Appeal Board, 506 N.W.2d 445, 447-78 (Iowa 1993), Suluki v. Employment Appeal Bd., 503 N.W.2d 402, 405 (Iowa 1993), and Swanson v. Employment Appeal Bd., 554 N.W.2d 294, 296 (Iowa Ct. App. 1996). These cases require an employee to give an employer notice of intent to quit, thus giving the employer an opportunity to cure working conditions. Accordingly, in 1995, the Iowa Administrative Code was amended to include an intent-to-quit requirement. The requirement was only added, however, to rule 871-24.26(6)(b), the provision addressing work-related health problems. No intent-to-quit requirement was added to rule 871-24.26(4), the intolerable working conditions provision. Our supreme court concluded that, because the intent-to-quit requirement was added to 871-24.26(6)(b) but not 871-24.26(4), notice of intent to quit is not required for intolerable working conditions. Hy-Vee, Inc. v. Employment Appeal Bd., 710 N.W.2d 1 (Iowa 2005).

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(4) provides:

Voluntary quit with good cause attributable to the employer and separations not considered to be voluntary quits. The following are reasons for a claimant leaving employment with good cause attributable to the employer:

(4) The claimant left due to intolerable or detrimental working conditions.

In this case, the claimant's co-worker harassed her, yelled profanities at her, tried to physically fight her and then spit in her face. Under the circumstances faced by the claimant, a reasonable person would feel compelled to resign. O'Brien v. EAB, 494 N.W.2d 660, 662 (Iowa 1993). As such, the claimant's voluntary quitting was for a good-cause reason attributable to the employer according to Iowa law. Benefits are allowed, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The April 11, 2022 (reference 06) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant's separation from this employer was not disqualifying. Benefits are allowed, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
