APPEAL 22A-UI-14775-DZ-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 03/15/20
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timely Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct
Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Mikayla J. Young, the claimant/appellant, filed an appeal from the Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) December 17, 2020 (reference 01) unemployment insurance (UI) decision that denied REGULAR (state) UI benefits because of a February 2, 2020 voluntary quit. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on August 15, 2022. Appeals 22A-UI-14775-DZ-T, and 22A-UI-14776-DZ-T were heard together and formed one hearing record. Ms. Young participated personally. The employer participated through Jeremy Lloyd, store manager, Kerry Anderson, human resources, and Frankie Patterson, Corporate Cost Control, Inc. hearing representative. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the Ms. Young's appeal filed on time?
Did Ms. Young voluntarily quit without good cause attributable to the employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: IWD mailed the UI decision to Ms. Young at the correct address on December 17, 2020. The UI decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by the IWD Appeals Section by December 27, 2020. If the date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the appeal period is extended to the next working day. December 27, 2020 was a Sunday; therefore, the deadline was extended to Monday, December 28, 2020. Ms. Young received decision in the mail. Ms. Young did not file an appeal at that time.

Ms. Young had applied for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) benefits on December 9, 2020. PUA benefits were federal UI benefits available to qualified claimants who were unemployed, partially unemployed, or unable to work due to the COVID-19 pandemic. On January 5, 2021, IWD denied Ms. Young PUA benefits.

On July 1, 2022, IWD mailed Ms. Young another UI decision showing she owed IWD an overpayment of $18,614.00. Ms. Young received that decision in the mail. Ms. Young filed an appeal online on July 5, 2022. The appeal was received on July 5, 2022. Appeals were set up for the December 17, 2020 (reference 01) decision and the overpayment decision.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes Ms. Young's appeal of the December 17, 2020 (reference 01) UI decision was not filed on time.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

2. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:
 - (2) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.
 - (b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.
 - (c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

Ms. Young received the December 17, 2020 (reference 01) UI decision by the December 28, 2020 deadline and, therefore, could have filed an appeal by the appeal deadline. The notice provision of the decision was valid. Ms. Young's delay in filing her appeal was not due to an error or misinformation from the Department or due to delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. No other good cause reason has been established for the delay in filing her appeal. Ms. Harper's appeal of the December 17, 2020 (reference 01) UI decision was not filed on time and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction (authority) to decide the other issue in this matter.

DECISION:

Ms. Young's appeal of the December 17, 2020 (reference 01) UI decision was not filed on time. The December 17, 2020 (reference 01) UI decision is AFFIRMED.
