ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 01/29/17
Claimant: Appellant (2R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(1) – Filing Claims
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)a & h(1) & (2) – Backdating

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the February 17, 2017, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision that denied the request to backdate the claim for benefits prior to January 29, 2017. After due notice was issued, a hearing was scheduled to be held by telephone conference call on March 15, 2017. Claimant participated. Claimant's Exhibit A was received into evidence.

ISSUE:

May the claim be backdated prior to January 29, 2017?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant filed a claim for benefits with an effective date of January 29, 2017, and desires to backdate the claim to the week beginning December 4, 2016. Claimant was temporarily laid off work for the season effective December 7, 2016. Claimant delayed filing the claim because, prior to being laid off, claimant was advised by his employer that as a seasonal employee he was not eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits. Claimant later discovered this information was not accurate and immediately filed his claim for benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's request to backdate the claim is granted.

Iowa Code § 96.6(1) provides:

1. Filing. Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the department may prescribe.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)h(1) and (2) provide:

Procedures for workers desiring to file a claim for benefits for unemployment insurance.

(1) § 96.6 of the employment security law of Iowa states that claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such rules as the department prescribes. The department of workforce development accordingly prescribes:

h. Effective starting date for the benefit year.

(1) Filing for benefits shall be effective as of Sunday of the current calendar week in which, subsequent to the individual's separation from work, an individual reports in person at a workforce development center and registers for work in accordance with paragraph "a" of this rule.

(2) The claim may be backdated prior to the first day of the calendar week in which the claimant does report and file a claim for the following reasons:

Backdated prior to the week in which the individual reported if the individual presents to the department sufficient grounds to justify or excuse the delay;

There is scheduled filing in the following week because of a mass layoff;

The failure of the department to recognize the expiration of the claimant's previous benefit year;

The individual is given incorrect advice by a workforce development employee;

The claimant filed an interstate claim against another state which has been determined as ineligible;

Failure on the part of the employer to comply with the provisions of the law or of these rules;

Coercion or intimidation exercised by the employer to prevent the prompt filing of such claim;

Failure of the department to discharge its responsibilities promptly in connection with such claim, the department shall extend the period during which such claim may be filed to a date which shall be not less than one week after the individual has received appropriate notice of potential rights to benefits, provided, that no such claim may be filed after the 13 weeks subsequent to the end of the benefit year during which the week of unemployment occurred. In the event continuous jurisdiction is exercised under the provisions of the law, the department may, in its discretion, extend the period during which claims, with respect to week of unemployment affected by such redetermination, may be filed.

The current Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook, provides in pertinent part on pages 13 and 14:

CLAIM EFFECTIVE DATE

The effective date of all UI claims, regardless of filing method, will be the Sunday of the week in which the application was filed.

REACTIVATING A CLAIM

An individual can start and stop claiming weekly benefits as many times as necessary during the benefit year. This is called a break in reporting status. Any break in reporting requires the individual to file another initial claim application during the week they want to start collecting benefits again.

The current Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook, provides in pertinent part on pages 19 and 20:

CLAIMING BENEFITS EACH WEEK

To request UI benefit payments during weeks of unemployment, individuals must certify they:

- are currently unemployed or working reduced hours
- are able to work and available for work
- have not refused any job offers or referrals to a job
- are actively looking for work (unless waived)
- are reporting any pay or pension payment received

Eligibility can be certified online or by phone.

CERTIFYING ONLINE

The weekly continued claim is available on the IWD website at www.iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov. Individuals must follow the instructions to log in. Once logged in, eligibility questions are presented.

CERTIFYING BY TELEPHONE

The weekly continued claim is available by calling the Interactive Voice Response unit (IVR) at 800-850-5627. Pre-recorded messages will present the eligibility questions.

Individuals should listen carefully to each question and the instructions since the menu responses may be different. Some questions will instruct individuals to enter the pound key/hash tag (#) at the end of the answer.

IMPORTANT: Both systems (whether filing online or by phone) will confirm that the claim has been processed successfully. If disconnected before seeing or hearing this message, the process must be repeated until the claim has been successfully submitted.

The current week is the week that just ended on Saturday.

HOURS TO SUBMIT WEEKLY CONTINUED CLAIM

Individuals may submit a weekly continued claim:

Monday through Friday, 8:00 am to 6:00 pm 9:00 am Saturday to 11:30 pm,
Sunday

Claimant delayed in filing his claim due to misinformation given to him by his employer during a temporary layoff. Misrepresentation from the employer about the employment relationship and eligibility for unemployment insurance benefits is considered a good cause reason for having failed to file a claim during the first week of unemployment. Backdating is allowed, as are retroactive benefits for the same time period. During the hearing claimant provided testimony indicating he worked some hours during the week beginning December 4, 2016 and earned wages on December 20, 2016, but was not sure of the amount. Accordingly, the issue of claimant's weekly benefit amount for the weeks is remanded.

DECISION:

The February 17, 2017, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant's request to backdate the claim to December 4, 2016, is granted, as are retroactive benefits for the same time period.

REMAND:

The issue of the amount of weekly benefits claimant is entitled to for the weeks beginning December 4, 2016 and December 18, 2016, is remanded to the Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development for an initial investigation and determination.
