(Decision Dated & Mailed)

871 IAC 24.9(2) – Nonmonetary Determinations

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Serena Berg (claimant) appealed an unemployment insurance decision dated June 29, 2006, reference 06, which held that she was not eligible for unemployment insurance benefits because she failed to make an adequate work search for the week ending June 24, 2006. Before a hearing could be held, the Agency granted the relief requested by issuing a subsequent decision holding the June 29, 2006 decision null and void. Under these circumstances, no hearing is necessary.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having reviewed and considered the evidence in the record, finds that: The decision from which the claimant has appealed has been rendered null and void by a subsequent fact-finding decision issued July 11, 2006.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue is whether a hearing is necessary in this matter. It is not because the claimant has received the relief requested in her appeal.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated June 29, 2006, reference 06, is null and void. No disqualification is imposed on the claimant.
