APPEAL NO: 13A-UI-00663-ST

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE

DECISION

WEAVER ENTERPRISES LTD

Employer

OC: 12/02/12

Claimant: Respondent (1)

Section 96.5-2-a – Discharge 871 IAC 24.32(1) – Definition of Misconduct

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer appealed a department decision dated January 15, 2013, reference 02, that held the claimant was not discharged for misconduct on December 13, 2012, and benefits are allowed. A telephone hearing was held on February 19, 2013. The claimant participated. The employer did not participate.

ISSUE:

Whether the claimant was discharged for misconduct in connection with employment.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge having heard the witness testimony and having considered the evidence in the record, finds: The claimant began employment on February 2, 2012, and last worked for the employer/KFC as a cashier/cook on November 29. She had issues with her manager at the Cedar Falls location and she was granted a request to transfer to a Waterloo restaurant. She was discharged without written discipline on December 13.

The employer failed to respond to the hearing notice.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.5-2-a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

- 2. Discharge for misconduct. If the department finds that the individual has been discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment:
- a. The individual shall be disqualified for benefits until the individual has worked in and has been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

871 IAC 24.32(1)a provides:

Discharge for misconduct.

- (1) Definition.
- a. "Misconduct" is defined as a deliberate act or omission by a worker which constitutes a material breach of the duties and obligations arising out of such worker's contract of employment. Misconduct as the term is used in the disqualification provision as being limited to conduct evincing such willful or wanton disregard of an employer's interest as is found in deliberate violation or disregard of standards of behavior which the employer has the right to expect of employees, or in carelessness or negligence of such degree of recurrence as to manifest equal culpability, wrongful intent or evil design, or to show an intentional and substantial disregard of the employer's interests or of the employee's duties and obligations to the employer. On the other hand mere inefficiency, unsatisfactory conduct, failure in good performance as the result of inability or incapacity, inadvertencies or ordinary negligence in isolated instances, or good faith errors in judgment or discretion are not to be deemed misconduct within the meaning of the statute.

The administrative law judge concludes the employer has failed to establish that the claimant was discharged for misconduct in connection with employment on December 13, 2012. The employer failed to participate in this hearing and offer evidence of job disqualifying misconduct.

DECISION:

rls/pjs

The department decision dated January 15, 2013, reference 02, is affirmed. The claimant was not discharged for misconduct on December 13, 2012. Benefits are allowed, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.
