

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT
UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE APPEALS

68-0157 (9-06) - 3091078 - EI

NGOZI Q KEMDIRIM
Claimant

APPEAL NO. 12A-UI-09061-H2T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

ACCESSIBLE MEDICAL STAFFING
Employer

OC: 06-24-12
Claimant: APPELLANT (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1)j – Voluntary Leaving (Temporary Assignment)

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed a timely appeal from the July 25, 2012, reference 01, decision that denied benefits. After due notice was issued, an in-person hearing was held on September 26, 2012 in Des Moines, Iowa. The claimant did participate. With the claimant but not offering any testimony was her friend, Fidis Ubadugbo. The employer did participate through Mindy Butler, Administrator. Employer's Exhibit One was entered and received into the record.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether claimant quit by not reporting for additional work assignments within three business days of the end of the last assignment.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant was last assigned to work Millpond Care Center as a certified nurse's assistant full time beginning May 18, 2012 through May 19, 2012 when the customer, Millpond, told the claimant's employer that they did not want her to return to their facility. It was an employee of Millpond that sent the claimant home. The claimant was never told by any employee of Accessible Medical Staffing that she was being discharged from their employment. The claimant was sent home by Millpond and never again sought additional assignments for other facilities from her employer Accessible Medical Staffing. The claimant had been given and signed the employer's notification that she was to contact them within three working days of the end of an assignment to inform the employer of her availability for work. She did not do so. If the claimant had contacted the employer again, she would have been sent out for other assignments at locations other than Millpond. In the past the claimant had demonstrated an ability to call in with her availability. The administrative law judge specifically finds that the claimant never called the employer to seek additional work after she was sent home from the Millpond assignment. The employer contacted the claimant on May 21 to ask her to turn in her time sheets so she would get paid.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant voluntarily left employment without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code § 96.5-1-j provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department, but the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

For the purposes of this paragraph:

(1) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their work force during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(2) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

871 IAC 24.26(19) provides:

Voluntary quit with good cause attributable to the employer and separations not considered to be voluntary quits. The following are reasons for a claimant leaving employment with good cause attributable to the employer:

(19) The claimant was employed on a temporary basis for assignment to spot jobs or casual labor work and fulfilled the contract of hire when each of the jobs was completed. An election not to report for a new assignment to work shall not be construed as a voluntary leaving of employment. The issue of a refusal of an offer of suitable work shall be adjudicated when an offer of work is made by the former employer. The provisions of Iowa Code § 96.5(3) and rule 24.24(96) are controlling in the determination of suitability of work. However, this subrule shall not apply to substitute school employees who are subject to the provisions of Iowa Code § 96.4(5) which denies benefits that are based on service in an educational institution when the individual declines or refuses to accept a new contract or reasonable assurance of continued employment status. Under this circumstance, the substitute school employee shall be considered to have voluntarily quit employment.

The purpose of the statute is to provide notice to the temporary agency employer that the claimant is available for work at the conclusion of each temporary assignment so they may be reassigned and continue working. In this case, the claimant gave the employer no notice of her availability and, therefore, is considered to have quit the employment, even though claimant may have returned to work for the temporary agency at some later date. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The July 25, 2012 (reference 01) decision is affirmed. The claimant's separation was not attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as the claimant works in and has been paid for wages equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible.

---

Teresa K. Hillary
Administrative Law Judge

---

Decision Dated and Mailed

tkh/css