APPEAL NO. 10A-UI-03376-VST

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

BEACON OF LIFE
Employer

OC: 01/17/10
Claimant: Appellant (5)

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) – Able and Available
Iowa Code section 96.19(38)a & b – Total and Partial Unemployment
Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(2) – Same Base Period Employment
871 IAC 24.22(2)f – Part-Time Worker - Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated February 24, 2010, reference 01, which held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a telephone conference hearing was scheduled for and held on April 16, 2010. Claimant participated. The employer notified the administrative law judge prior to the hearing that it would not be participating in the hearing. The record consists of the testimony of Denise Wadle and Claimant's Exhibits 1-3. Official notice is taken of agency records.

ISSUE:

Whether the claimant is partially unemployed

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony of the witnesses and having considered all of the evidence in the record, makes the following findings of fact:

The claimant started working for the employer on November 2, 2009. She is presently on p.r.n status with the employer. Her p.r.n status began on February 8, 2010. Although she was initially hired as a part-time employee, her hours were increased. She worked 40 hours for the week of November 21, 2009. Her last week of full-time work was December 19, 2009, when she worked 40 hours per week. The employer then hired an intern and the claimant's hours were reduced to 20 to 22 hours per week.

The claimant did go to p.r.n status at her own request on February 8, 2010. She had obtained a full-time job that started on February 8, 2010. The claimant had had a full-time job with Principal Financial Group. Due to downsizing by Principal, the claimant was terminated on December 31, 2008. Wages from Principal are included in her base period.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant is partially unemployed and the part-time employer is relieved of benefit charges for the period beginning October 25, 2009.

Iowa Code section 96.4-3 provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph 1, or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code section 96.19-38 provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which, while employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which the individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code section 96.7-2-a(2) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.

However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and section 96.8, subsection 5.

An employer's account shall not be charged with benefits paid to an individual who left the work of the employer voluntarily without good cause attributable to the employer or to an individual who was discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment, or to an individual who failed without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work or to accept suitable work with that employer, but shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The amount of benefits paid to an individual, which is solely due to wage credits considered to be in an individual's base period due to the exclusion and substitution of calendar quarters from the individual's base period under section 96.23, shall be charged against the account of the employer responsible for paying the workers' compensation benefits for temporary total disability or during a healing period under section 85.33, section 85.34, subsection 1, or section 85A.17, or responsible for paying indemnity insurance benefits.

871 IAC 23.43(4)a provides in part:

(4) Supplemental employment.

a. An individual, who has been separated with cause attributable to the regular employer and who remains in the employ of the individual's part-time, base period employer, continues to be eligible for benefits as long as the individual is receiving the same employment from the part-time employer that the individual received during the base period. The part-time employer's account, including the reimbursable employer's account, may be relieved of benefit charges....

The evidence in this case established that the claimant was hired for a part-time position with Beacon of Life on November 2, 2009. Although this position was part time, the claimant's hours were increased, for a short time, to 40 hours per week. After initially telling the claimant that she would receive what is the equivalent of full-time work, Beacon of Life reduced her hours after hiring an intern. The claimant then went to p.r.n status on February 8, 2010, which is a new contract of hire.

The original claim date is January 17, 2010. Between January 17, 2010, and February 8, 2010, the claimant worked less hours. Because the claimant has other base period wages, some of which were full-time, and is currently employed part-time, she is considered partially unemployed. Partial benefits may be allowed if she is otherwise eligible, starting January 17, 2010, and ending February 8, 2010.

DECISION:

The February 24, 2010 (reference 01) decision is modified in favor of the appellant. The claimant is partially unemployed and benefits are allowed, provided she is otherwise eligible for the period of January 17, 2010 to February 8, 2010. The account of the current part-time employer (account number 319128) shall not be charged.
