(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) - Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed a timely appeal from the July 5, 2006, reference 02, decision that denied benefits. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on August 3, 2006. Claimant participated. The issue is whether claimant is able to and available for work. Claimant's Exhibit A was received.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant has been working day labor jobs and reporting those wages while filing his weekly claims for benefits. His doctor has expressed in writing that he is able to work and has not had any work restrictions during his claim year. Even prior to that he was only given light duty work for a brief period of time after a job injury and was released to regular duties.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant is able to work and available for work.

Iowa Code § 96.4-3 provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph 1, or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

871 IAC 24.22(2) provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in which the individual is offering the services.

Claimant's sporadic work as a day laborer, while claiming benefits, is prima facie evidence of his ability to and availability for work. Even without his physician's express opinion he was able to work since his work injury and brief period of light duty. Accordingly, benefits are allowed.

DECISION:

The July 5, 2006, reference 02, decision is reversed. The claimant is able to work and available for work effective May 21, 2006. Benefits are allowed.
