TORIE J LEQUATTE
Claimant

APPEAL 23A-UI-03456-SN-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 03/15/20
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
PL 116-136, Sec. 2104 – Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (“FPUC”)
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Overpayment of Benefits
Iowa Code § 96.5(5) – Deductions
Iowa Code § 96.19(38) – Total, Partial, Temporary Unemployment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Torie J. Lequatte, filed a timely appeal from November 22, 2022, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision that found he had been overpaid $600.00 in Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (“FPUC”) benefits between April 26, 2020 and May 2, 2020 due to his failure to report wages earned during those weeks. After due notice was issued, a telephone conference hearing was set for April 17, 2023. The claimant participated. The employer participated through President Garen Palmer. Iowa Workforce Development participated through Investigator Mike Newton. The administrative law judge took official notice of the agency records, including documents generated at factfinding. Exhibits A, B, D1 and D2 were received into the record. The claimant waived notice regarding timeliness of appeal being an issue on this appeal. This appeal was heard jointly with 23A-UI-03455-SN-T.

ISSUES:

Whether the claimant’s appeal is timely? Whether circumstances exist that the appeal period should be extended to afford the claimant a reasonable chance to appeal?

Whether the claimant inaccurately reported wages from April 26, 2020 and May 2, 2020?

Whether the claimant is overpaid benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony and having examined the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

A disqualification decision was mailed to claimant's last known address of record, 3219 Wildrose Avenue in Truro, Iowa 50257 8107, on November 22, 2022. The claimant did not receive the decision within ten days because she moved in July 2020 to 15159 R45 Highway Saint Marys, Iowa 50241. The claimant did not update her address with the US Post Office or with Iowa

Workforce Development. The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Section by December 2, 2022. (Exhibit D-1) The appeal was not filed until March 31, 2023, which is after the date noticed on the disqualification decision. (Exhibit D-2)

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge determines the claimant's appeal is untimely. He further concludes there are not circumstances beyond the claimant's control such that extension of the appeal period is needed to preserve due process.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of issuance of the notice of the filing of the claim to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. All interested parties shall select a format as specified by the department to receive such notifications. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of section 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsections 10 and 11, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to section 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was issued, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The ten calendar days for appeal begins running on the mailing date. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

The record in this case shows that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

The record shows that the appellant did have a reasonable opportunity to file a timely appeal. The decision did not reach the claimant until February 28, 2023 because she had not forwarded her mail with the US Postal Service nor had she updated her address with Iowa Workforce Development Department. There is nothing to suggest the claimant's delay in filing was due to an agency error or an error in mailing.

The administrative law judge concludes that failure to file a timely appeal within the time prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law was not due to any Agency error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service pursuant to 871 IAC 24.35(2). The administrative law judge further concludes that the appeal was not timely filed pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.6(2), and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal. See Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979) and Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).

DECISION:

The November 22, 2022, (reference 02), decision is AFFIRMED. The appeal in this case was not timely, and the decision of the representative remains in effect.
