Claimant: Appellant (1)

Section 96.3-7 - Recovery of Overpayment of Benefits

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Jennifer Brown (claimant) appealed a representative's August 13, 2013 decision (reference 02) that concluded she had been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits. A telephone hearing was scheduled to be held on August 28, 2013. The claimant participated personally.

ISSUE:

Was the claimant overpaid unemployment insurance benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

A representative issued a decision dated May 3, 2013 (reference 01) that concluded the claimant was eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits after a separation from employment from Copy Plus (employer). The employer timely appealed that decision. A hearing was held with an administrative law judge that issued a decision in appeal 13A-UI-05389-HT reversing the representative's decision and finding the claimant ineligible for benefits due to the separation. The administrative law judge's decision included a remand to the Agency Claims Section for determination of an overpayment. The claimant did not appeal the administrative law judge's June 28, 2013, decision.

In issuing the initial representative's decision on May 3, 2013, there had been a fact-finding interview scheduled and held on May 2, 2013. The employer participated personally in that fact-finding interview.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue in this case is whether the claimant is overpaid benefits of $3,575.00, received prior to the disqualification imposed on appeal in 13A-UI-05389-HT.

The unemployment insurance law provides that benefits must be recovered from a claimant who receives benefits and is later determined to be ineligible for benefits, even though the claimant acted in good faith and was not otherwise at fault. However, the overpayment will not be recovered when it is based on a reversal on appeal of an initial determination to award benefits on an issue regarding the claimant's employment separation if: (1) the benefits were not received due to any fraud or willful misrepresentation by the claimant and (2) the employer did not participate in the initial proceeding to award benefits. The employer will not be charged for benefits whether or not the overpayment is recovered. Iowa Code section 96.3-7.

In this case, the employer participated in the initial fact-finding interview. Therefore, the claimant did receive benefits for which she was ineligible, the waiver provision Iowa Code section 96.3-7-b does not apply.

DECISION:

The representative's August 13, 2013, decision (reference 02) is affirmed. The claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits due to a disqualifying separation from employment, and recovery of that overpayment is not waived.
