APPEAL 22A-UI-16631-ED-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 07/17/22
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and available for work
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Same Hours and Wages
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)A(2) – Totally. Partially, temporarily unemployed

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer/appellant filed an appeal from the August 17, 2022, (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits based upon the claimant being laid off for lack of work. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on September 26, 2022. The claimant, Tiffany Marshall, participated personally. The employer, John Deere Company, participated through Janice Gordon. No exhibits were offered or admitted.

ISSUES:

Was the claimant able to and available for work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was hired on April 11, 2022 as the resource pool full-time. The week of July 18 – July 22 the claimant worked 48 hours and the employer is protesting the claim for that week. The claimant was on layoff July 25 – 29 and the company is not protesting that particular week because the company was on shut-down. The claimant returned to work per her usual schedule after July 29, 2022.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant was able to work and available for work for the period in question.

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37", paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(2) provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in

For an unemployed individual to be eligible to receive benefits, she must be able to work, available for work, and actively seeking work as required by the unemployment insurance law. Iowa Code § 96.4(3). The burden is on the claimant to establish that she is able and available for work within the meaning of the statute. Iowa Code § 96.6(2); Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22. In this case, the claimant was off work during the week of July 24 – 29, 2022. Accordingly, benefits are allowed for that week.

DECISION:

The August 17, 2022, (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The claimant is able to work and available for work effective July 24, 2022 and was temporarily laid off July 24 – 29, 2022. Benefits are allowed for that period.
