APPEAL NO. 22A-UI-04226-DG-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 12/26/21
Claimant: Respondent (4R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) - Timeliness of Protest

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer filed a timely appeal from the February 1, 2022, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits and found the protest untimely. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on March 18, 2022. Claimant did not participate. Employer participated through Dawn Runksmeier, Administrator. Employer's Exhibit 1 was received. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record, including the notice of claim and protest.

ISSUE:

Is the employer's protest timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant's notice of claim was mailed to the employer's address of record on December 30, 2021. The employer filed its protest on January 10, 2022 which was before the ten-day period had expired. The claimant's October 21, 2020, separation from employment has not yet been the subject of a Benefits Bureau fact-finding interview.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

The law provides that all interested parties shall be promptly notified about an individual filing a claim. The parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of claim to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). Another portion of Iowa Code § 96.6(2) dealing with timeliness of an appeal from a representative's decision states an appeal must be filed within ten days after notification of that decision was mailed. In addressing an issue of timeliness of an appeal under that portion of this Code section, the Iowa Supreme Court has held that this statute clearly limits the time to do so, and compliance with the appeal notice provision is mandatory and jurisdictional. Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979). The reasoning and holding of the Beardslee court is considered controlling on the portion of Iowa Code § 96.6(2) that deals with the time limit to file a protest after the notice of claim has been mailed to the employer. The employer received the notice of claim within the protest period. The employer filed a protest in a timely manner on January 10, 2022. The department did not discover the protest until a later date. The protest shall be accepted as timely.

DECISION:

The February 1, 2022, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is modified in favor of the appellant. The employer has filed a timely protest.

REMAND:

The separation issue is remanded to the Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development for a fact-finding interview and unemployment insurance decision.
