ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

WEST DES MOINES COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT

Employer

OC: 02/12/23

Claimant: Respondent (1R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On April 20, 2023, WDM Comm. School District (employer) filed an appeal from the notice of reimbursable benefit charges dated April 15, 2023, reference 06, which listed reimbursable benefit charge information for the first quarter of 2023. A telephone hearing was held on May 9, 2023, pursuant to due notice. The employer did participate through Megan Thole. The employer's Exhibit 1 was received.

The administrative law judge took official notice of the claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?
Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant separated from employment on April 5, 2022 and filed a claim for benefits effective February 12, 2023. The Notice of Claim was provided to the employer in the SIDES system with an e-mail alert on February 12, 2023. The employer did receive that notice. The employer filed a SIDES protest on February 22, 2023. Although employer filed a SIDES protest, no fact finding was held in this matter.

The first notice of the claimant's claim for benefits was the receipt of the notice of reimbursable benefit charges mailed on April 15, 2023 for the first quarter of 2023. The employer filed its appeal of that notice of charges on April 20, 2023.

Whether the claimant's separation qualifies for benefits has not yet been investigated or adjudicated by the Benefits Bureau.

The administrative law judge does note that claimant's weekly benefit amount is $354.00. The administrative law judge further notes that claimant has earned far in excess of ten times this weekly benefit amount in the period between the date of the job separation with West Des Moines Community School District and the date of filing for unemployment benefits in this matter.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer filed a timely appeal from the notice of reimbursable benefit charges and filed a timely protest in this matter.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7 provides, in relevant part:

Employer contributions and reimbursements.

- 7. Financing benefits paid to employees of governmental entities.
- c. For purposes of this subsection, "governmental reimbursable employer" means an employer which makes payments to the department for the unemployment compensation fund in an amount equivalent to the regular and extended benefits paid, which are based on wages paid for services in the employ of the employer. Benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the base period employers in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred. However, the amount of benefits charged against an employer for a calendar quarter of the base period shall not exceed the amount of the individual's wage credits based upon employment with that employer during that quarter. At the end of each calendar quarter, the department shall bill each governmental reimbursable employer for benefits paid during that quarter. Payments by a governmental reimbursable employer shall be made in accordance with subsection 8, paragraph "b", subparagraphs (2) through (5).
- 8. Financing benefits paid to employees of nonprofit organizations.

b. Reimbursements for benefits paid in lieu of contributions shall be made in accordance with the following:

(4) The amount due specified in a bill from the department is conclusive unless, not later than fifteen days following the date the bill was mailed or otherwise delivered to the last known address of the nonprofit organization, the nonprofit organization files an application for redetermination with the department setting forth the grounds for the application. The department shall promptly review the amount due specified in the bill and shall issue a redetermination. The redetermination is conclusive on the nonprofit organization unless, not later than thirty days after the redetermination was mailed or otherwise delivered to the last known address of the nonprofit organization, the nonprofit organization files an appeal to the district court pursuant to subsection 5.

(5) The provisions for collection of contributions under section 96.14 are applicable to reimbursements for benefits paid in lieu of contributions.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.4 provides, in relevant part:

- 2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:
- a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
- b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,
- c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.
- 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.
- 4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

lowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6), which applies to contributory employers, provides guidance in the situation here, which deals with a reimbursable employer. It states that a contributory employer who did not receive notice of the claim may appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of an individual to receive benefits following receipt of a statement of charges. While lowa Code sections 96.7(7) and (8) which address reimbursable employers do not specifically state the reimbursable employers have appeal rights following the notice of reimbursable charges if they did not receive prior notice of the claim, lowa Admin Code r. 871-26.4(4) allows for such an appeal.

Employer did receive notice of the claim and did file a timely protest through the SIDES system. Employer's appeal of the notice of reimbursable charges within 15 days is timely.

Because both the protest and the appeal of the statement of charges were timely filed the issues of the reason for the separation and requalification are remanded to the Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) for an initial investigation and determination. The administrative law judge does note that the claimant has earned ten times her weekly benefit amount since the date of separation in this matter.

DECISION:

The conditions for appealing the statement of charges and timely protest have been met. The April 15, 2023 Statement of Charges for the first quarter of 2023 is affirmed pending the investigation regarding the remanded issues.

REMAND:

The issues of whether separation from employment was disqualifying and whether the claimant has requalified for benefits are remanded to the Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development for an initial investigation and determination.
