ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Employer filed an appeal from the May 18, 2022, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that found the protest untimely and allowed benefits. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held by telephone conference call on July 11, 2022. Claimant Jakyiah M. Cooper participated personally. Employer Parco, Ltd. participated through human resources manager Mikaylah Veglahn. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record, including the Notice of Claim and Statement of Protest.

ISSUE:

Is the employer's protest timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant separated from employment and filed a claim for benefits effective May 1, 2022. The notice of claim was provided to the employer in the SIDES system with an e-mail alert on May 6, 2022. The notice of claim contains a warning that the employer protest response is due ten days from the initial notice date and gave a response deadline of May 16, 2022.

Employer did not file a protest response until May 17, 2022, which is after the ten-day period had expired because the office manager who received the email notification was out of the office due to illness. Ms. Veglahn does not have access to that manager's email. The business was still in operation during the office manager's absence from the office. Employer retrieved the email notification of the claim upon the office manager's return to the office on May 17, 2022, and Ms. Veglahn immediately submitted a response to the notice of claim.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge concludes that employer has failed to protest response within the time period prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Another portion of this same Code section dealing with timeliness of an appeal from a representative's decision states that such an appeal must be filed within ten days after notification of that decision was mailed. In addressing an issue of timeliness of an appeal under that portion of this Code section, the Iowa Supreme Court held that this statute prescribing the time for notice of appeal clearly limits the time to do so, and that compliance with the appeal notice provision is mandatory and jurisdictional. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979).

In this case employer registered an email address in the SIDES program that would accept the notice of claims. Employer did not check the email address it registered with the SIDES program while that employee was out of the office due to illness. The reason employer did not receive the notice of claim was not due to any Agency error or misinformation. No other good cause reason has been established for the delay. The administrative law judge further concludes that the employer has failed to timely protest pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.6(2), and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the claimant's termination of employment. See, Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979); Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979) and Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 465 N.W.2d 674 (Iowa Ct. App. 1990).

DECISION:

The May 18, 2022, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. Employer has failed to file a timely protest response, and the decision of the representative shall stand and remain in full force and effect.
