

IN THE IOWA ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS DIVISION
UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE APPEALS BUREAU

JOHN W WALTER
Claimant

APPEAL 23A-UI-10830-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

PMX INDUSTRIES INC
Employer

OC: 08/27/23
Claimant: Respondent (1R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On November 15, 2023, PMX Industries Inc. (employer) filed an appeal from the statement of charges dated November 9, 2023, (reference 02), for the third quarter of 2023. A hearing was held on December 7, 2023, pursuant to due notice. John W. Walter (claimant) did not participate. The employer participated through Director of HR Brian Bedard. The Department's Exhibits D-1 through D-3 were admitted into the record. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?
Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant separated from employment on April 11, 2023, and filed a claim for benefits effective August 27, 2023. The notice of claim was generated in the online SIDES system on August 31, 2023. The employer did not receive that notice. It appears that, at one time, the employer was signed up for the SIDES system. However, since Bedard has been responsible for unemployment insurance claims, he has received paper notices of claim, and was unaware of the existence of the SIDES system. The administrative record does not reflect that a paper notice of claim was generated for claimant's claim for benefits. The first notice of the claimant's claim for benefits was the receipt of the statement of charges mailed November 9, 2023, for the third quarter of 2023. The employer filed its appeal of that statement of charges on November 15, 2023.

The administrative record indicates that claimant may have requalified for benefits by earning at least 10 times his weekly benefit amount since this separation, but it is not clear whether or when that occurred. The issues of whether the claimant's separation qualifies him for benefits, and whether claimant has requalified for benefits since this separation, have not yet been investigated or adjudicated by the Benefits Bureau.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer did file a timely appeal to the statement of charges.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

Filing – determination – appeal.

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

Employer contribution and reimbursements.

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—26.4 provides, in relevant part:

2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:

- a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
- b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,
- c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.

4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

The employer filed its appeal of the statement of charges within the time period prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law because it did not receive the notice of claim indicating the claimant had filed a claim for benefits. The employer's appeal of that statement within thirty days is timely.

The issues of whether the claimant's separation qualifies him for benefits, and whether claimant has requalified for benefits by earning at least 10 times his weekly benefit amount, are remanded to the Benefits Bureau for a fact-finding interview and unemployment insurance decision.

DECISION:

The November 9, 2023, (reference 02), statement of charges for the third quarter of 2023 is AFFIRMED, pending the outcome of the remanded issue. The employer has filed a timely appeal from that statement of charges, as the notice of claim was not received.

REMAND:

The issues of whether the claimant's separation qualifies him for benefits, and whether claimant has requalified for benefits since the separation from this employer, are remanded to the Benefits Bureau for a fact-finding interview and unemployment insurance decision.
