APPEAL NO. 23A-UI-09004-B2T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

ALL CARE HEALTH CENTER
Employer

OC: 08/20/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6-2 – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the September 8, 2023 (reference 01) decision that denied benefits. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on October 6, 2023. The claimant did participate. The employer did participate through Malina Avalos. The administrative law judge took notice of the administrative record to examine

ISSUES:

Whether the appeal is timely?

Whether claimant quit for good cause attributable to employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: A decision was mailed to the claimant's last known address of record on September 8, 2023. The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Section by September 18, 2023. The appeal was not filed until September 19, 2023, which is after the date noticed on the disqualification decision. Claimant stated that she did receive the decision. Claimant further stated that she filed a timely appeal in this matter. The administrative law judge notes that the postmark indicates a date of September 19, 2023.

Claimant worked as a full time eligibility case manager for employer. She worked in this position for over three years prior to her quit. Prior to working in this position, claimant worked for employer in human resources for approximately five years. As a result of health concerns of a family member, claimant asked for and received a transfer to this position.

Claimant's job included working in an office for a day and a half a week, and working out of a homeless shelter three and a half days a week. Claimant worked around homeless people – many of whom were alcoholics, drug addicts, and people with criminal records.

Claimant stated that she expressed to employer her desire not to work around the homeless people on multiple occasions. Employer offered to have other people who worked in like positions to take over some of the days at the shelter to relieve claimant of some of her stress. Claimant believed that the two people who employer offered to share some of the time at the shelter were both ill-suited to work there. For this reason, claimant declined employer's offer at assistance.

The last most recent act that led to claimant's quit occurred when a shelter resident called claimant a black bitch. Claimant stated that she had been called names on numerous occasions, and brought these complaints to shelter workers. When this is done, the offending client is removed from the shelter for a day, and then workers determine whether a client is allowed to return. Claimant had no part in deciding whether a client is allowed to return to the shelter. The last calling of a name to claimant led to her quitting as she was worn out through having to work at the shelter for the majority of the job and didn't appreciate being insulted and degraded.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. . . . Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.

The ten calendar days for appeal begin running on the mailing date. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

Pursuant to rules Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.2(96)(1) and Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(96)(1), appeals are considered filed when postmarked, if mailed. Messina v. IDJS, 341 N.W.2d 52 (Iowa 1983).

The record in this case shows that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973). The record shows that the appellant did have a reasonable opportunity to file a timely appeal.

The administrative law judge concludes that failure to file a timely appeal within the time prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law was not due to any Agency error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service pursuant to Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2). The administrative law judge further concludes that the appeal was not timely filed pursuant to Iowa Code Section 96.6-2, and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal. See, Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979) and Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).

DECISION:

The September 8, 2023 (reference 01) decision is affirmed. The appeal in this case was not timely, and the decision of the representative remains in effect.
