ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OPTIMAE LIFESERVICES INC.

Employer

OC: 08/13/23

Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code §96.5(1)- Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On September 13, 2023, the claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the September 6, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on claimant voluntarily quitting on August 14, 2023 for personal reasons. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on September 29, 2023. Claimant participated. Employer did not call in to participate.

ISSUE:

I. Was the separation a layoff, discharge for misconduct, or voluntary quit without good cause?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for employer on March 14, 2023. Claimant last worked as a part-time direct support professional. As part of claimant's job duties she goes to people's homes and helps them with everyday tasks. Claimant is also required to take clients to doctor's appointments and grocery shopping. When claimant was first hired she was responsible for her own transportation and would receive reimbursement for her mileage. Beginning on June 1, 2023, the employer provided a vehicle to claimant to transport clients two days a week on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

On August 15, 2023, claimant arrived at work. Claimant was informed she no longer had an employer provided vehicle to complete her job duties. Claimant did not have her own private transportation to complete her job duties on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Claimant submitted her verbal resignation on August 15, 2023 due to having a lack of transportation on Tuesdays and Thursdays as a result of the employer no longer furnishing transportation to complete her duties.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was with good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(1) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to lowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving lowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(1) The claimant's lack of transportation to the work site unless the employer had agreed to furnish transportation.

While the employer has the burden to establish the separation was a voluntary quitting of employment rather than a discharge, claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). "In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer". Id. (citing Cook v. Iowa Dept. of Job Service, 299 N.W.2d 698, 701 (Iowa 1986)). The term "voluntary" requires volition and generally means a desire to quit the job. Id. (citing Bartelt v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 494 N.W.2d 684, 686 (Iowa 1993); Wills v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 447 N.W.2d 137, 138 (Iowa 1989); Cook, 299 N.W.2d at 701 (Iowa 1986); Moulton v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 34 N.W.2d 211, 213 (1948)).

In this case the claimant was no longer able to perform the duties of her job because the employer no longer provided transportation to complete her duties on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Claimant did not have access to a private vehicle during those days and did not have advance warning that she would be losing access to the employer provided vehicle. Claimant did not have any other choice but to quit since she could no longer perform the duties of her job due to the employer. Thus, the separation was with good cause attributable to the employer. As such, benefits are allowed, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The September 6, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant voluntarily left the employment with good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are allowed, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.
