OC: 07/02/23
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5-1 – Voluntary Leaving - Layoff
871 IAC 24.1(113)a – Separations From Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On July 31, 2023, the claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the July 27, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on claimant voluntarily quitting on April 13, 2023. The Iowa Workforce Development representative determined that claimant failed to produce evidence showing that she had good cause for voluntarily leaving the employer. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on August 16, 2023. Claimant participated. Employer did not call in to participate.

ISSUES:

- I. Is the claimant able to and available for work?
- II. Was the separation a layoff, discharge for misconduct, or voluntary quit without good cause?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for employer in October 2011. Claimant last worked as a part-time patient representative II. Claimant was separated from employment on April 9, 2023, when she was laid off due to lack of work. Claimant was given a severance agreement that gave her twelve weeks of pay. Claimant received the last payment on July 8, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant was laid off due to a lack of work.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.1(113)a provides:

Separations. All terminations of employment, generally classifiable as layoffs, quits, discharges, or other separations.

a. Layoffs. A layoff is a suspension from pay status initiated by the employer without prejudice to the worker for such reasons as: lack of orders, model changeover, termination of seasonal or temporary employment, inventory-taking, introduction of laborsaving devices, plant breakdown, shortage of materials; including temporarily furloughed employees and employees placed on unpaid vacations.

The employer laid the claimant off for lack of work as of April 9, 2023. When an employer suspends a claimant from work status, the separation does not prejudice the claimant. The claimant's separation was attributable to a lack of work by the employer. Benefits are allowed, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The representative's July 27, 2023, decision (reference 01) is REVERSED. The claimant was laid off due to a lack of work. Benefits are allowed, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.
