APPEAL 22O-UI-19384-SC-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 11/29/20
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22 – Able & Available - Benefits Eligibility Conditions
Iowa Code § 96.19(38) – Total, Partial, and Temporary Unemployment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On May 12, 2022, Kofi Kpovi (claimant) filed an appeal from the June 23, 2021, reference 04, unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits effective based upon the determination they were not able to and available for work as they were currently employed in the same hours and wages with Tyson Fresh Meats (employer). After due notice was issued, a telephone hearing was held on December 30, 2022 and consolidated with the hearings for appeals 22O-UI-19385-SC-T and 22O-UI-19386-SC-T. The claimant participated. The employer participated through Darla Awinjah. Moussa (employee number 10761) from CTS Language Link provided French interpretation. The department's Exhibits D1 through D4 were admitted into the record without objection.

ISSUE:

Is the claimant's appeal timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: On June 23, 2021, Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) mailed a disqualification decision to the claimant's last known address of record. The claimant had moved two months prior but did not update their address with IWD. They did have their mail forwarded, however, and received the decision within ten days. The claimant was receiving a lot of mail from IWD and did not open the letter containing the decision. The decision contained a warning that an appeal was due by July 3.

On December 28, IWD mailed two overpayment decisions to the claimant's address of record. They were received by the claimant within ten days. The claimant opened the mail at that time and learned they had been disqualified from receiving benefits and were required to pay back benefits received. The decision contained a warning that the appeal was due by January 7, 2022. The claimant reads some English but struggles with technical terms and did not understand all of the decision received. The claimant did not file the appeal until May 12, following receipt of a billing statement when they visited the IWD local office. The visit to IWD in May was the first time the claimant sought assistance to further understand the decisions received because of ongoing family and work obligations.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the following reasons, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's appeal is untimely.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

Filing – determination – appeal.

The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. . . . Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

Date of submission and extension of time for payments and notices.

(2) The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

a. For submission that is not within the statutory or regulatory period to be considered timely, the interested party must submit a written explanation setting forth the circumstances of the delay.

b. The division shall designate personnel who are to decide whether an extension of time shall be granted.

c. No submission shall be considered timely if the delay in filing was unreasonable, as determined by the department after considering the circumstances in the case.

d. If submission is not considered timely, although the interested party contends that the delay was due to division error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States postal service, the division shall issue an appealable decision to the interested party.

The ten calendar days for appeal begins running on the mailing date. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Bd. of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

The record in this case shows that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

The record shows that the appellant did have a reasonable opportunity to file a timely appeal. The claimant filed the appeal after the deadline because, initially, they did not open the letter received and then, after reading the decision approximately six months later, they waited five months to get assistance to better understand the decisions received due to family and work obligations. They have not established that the failure to file a timely appeal was due to any error by or misinformation from IWD or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service pursuant to Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2). As the appeal was not timely filed, the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal. See Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979) and Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).
