UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE APPEALS BUREAU

GLOBAL FOOD PROCESSING INC
Employer

APPEAL 23A-UI-11101-ED-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 06/18/23
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Employer, Global Foods Processing Inc, filed an appeal from the July 17, 2023 (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision that found claimant was eligible for benefits beginning July 2, 2023. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on December 18, 2023. Claimant, Timothy Hansen, did not participate. Delores Guest, participated on behalf of the employer, Global Foods Processing Inc. Employer's Exhibits 1, 2, and 3 were offered and admitted into evidence. Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Did the employer file a timely appeal?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The Unemployment Insurance Decision was mailed to the employer at the correct address on July 17, 2023.

The decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by Iowa Workforce Development Appeals Section by July 27, 2023. However, if the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the appeal period is extended to the next working day. The employer appealed the decision on November 29, 2023. Employer's appeal was received by Iowa Workforce Development on November 29, 2023. The Employer did not appeal the decision initially because it was not disputing the decision that the claimant was eligible for benefits beginning July 2, 2023. The employer filed its appeal when it received the statement of charges mailed on November 9, 2023 because the employer was disputing the time frame the claimant received benefits. The original claim date was June 18, 2023, however, the claimant was working full time with the employer until July 1, 2023. The employer stopped production and the claimant was dismissed from a full-time position on July 3, 2023. The claimant began working a part-time position from July 3, 2023 until July 13, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes employer's appeal was untimely.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: "[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision."

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

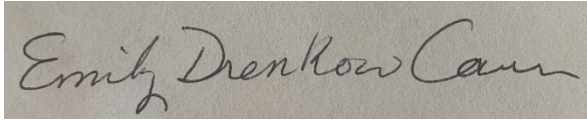

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion? Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

Employer received the decision prior to the appeal deadline but did not appeal the decision until after the deadline. Employer's delay was not due to agency error or misinformation or delay of the United States Postal Service. The appeal was not timely. Therefore, the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal.

DECISION:

Employer's appeal was not timely. The administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of the representative. The July 17, 2023 (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed.
