APPEAL NO. 11A-UI-08385-M2T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

SWIFT PORK COMPANY
Employer

OC: 05/29/11
Claimant: Appellant (5)

Section 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit
871 IAC 24.25(4) Three-Day No-Call/No-Show

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated June 17, 2011, reference 01, which held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a telephone conference hearing was scheduled for and held on July 19, 2011. Employer participated. Claimant did not participate, having either failed to be available or disconnecting intentionally. She called the Appeals Section after hearing and said she had class at the time of hearing.

ISSUE:

The issues in this matter are whether claimant quit for good cause attributable to employer.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and having considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant was scheduled for work on May 25 through 27, 2010, but was a no-call/no-show and never contacted the employer again. The claimant was a no-call/no-show for three days in violation of company rule. That is a quit without good cause attributable to the employer.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge holds that the evidence has failed to establish that claimant voluntarily quit for good cause attributable to employer when claimant terminated the employment relationship because she was a three-day no-call/no-show in violation of a company rule.

Iowa Code section 96.5-1 provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

871 IAC 24.25(4) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(4) The claimant was absent for three days without giving notice to employer in violation of company rule.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated June 17, 2011, reference 01, is affirmed as modified. Unemployment insurance benefits shall be withheld until claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times claimant's weekly benefit amount, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
