DECISION

Claimant: Respondent (4)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Remedy Intelligent Staffing Inc, the employer/appellant,¹ appealed the Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) February 23, 2024, (reference 02) unemployment insurance (UI) decision. IWD found Mr. Barron eligible for REGULAR (state) UI benefits as of January 21, 2024 because IWD concluded that he was unemployed due to a short-term layoff and he is able to and available for work. On March 8, 2024, the Iowa Department of Inspections, Appeals, and Licensing (DIAL), UI Appeals Bureau mailed a notice of hearing to the employer and Mr. Barron for a telephone hearing scheduled for March 28, 2024.

The administrative law judge held a telephone hearing on March 28, 2024. The employer participated in the hearing through Dawn Starr, branch manager. Mr. Barron did not participate in the hearing. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is Mr. Barron able to and available for work as of January 21, 2024?

Is Mr. Barron partially or temporarily unemployed as of January 21, 2024?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Mr. Barron began working for the employer, a base period employer, on April 18, 2023. He worked as a full-time associate/material handler assigned to work at General Mills. His schedule was set, and the employer paid him $15.50 per hour.

General Mills shut down from Saturday, January 20, 2024 through Sunday, February 4, 2024. On Friday, January 19, the employer reached out to Mr. Barron and offered him other work while General Mills was shut down. Mr. Barron did not respond to the employer. Mr. Barron returned to work at General Mills on Monday, February 5.

¹ Appellant is the person or employer who filed the appeal.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes Mr. Barron is not able to and available for work from January 21, 2024, the effective date of his UI claim, through February 3, 2024.

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(2)(a) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.

(a) However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and section 96.8, subsection 5.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) provide:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(26) Where a claimant is still employed in a part-time job at the same hours and wages as contemplated in the original contract for hire and is not working on a reduced workweek basis different from the contract for hire, such claimant cannot be considered partially unemployed.

A person claiming benefits has the burden of proof that he is be able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.² To be able to work, "[a]n individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood."³ "An evaluation of an individual's ability to work for the purposes of determining that individual's eligibility for unemployment benefits must necessarily take into consideration the economic and legal forces at work in the general labor market in which the individual resides."⁴

In this case, the employer offered Mr. Barron work during the time General Mills shut down. Mr. Barron did not respond to the employer. Mr. Barron did not participate in the hearing to explain why he didn't respond to the employer, or what was going on during the time General Mills shut down. Mr. Barron has not established that he was able to and available for work from January 21, 2024 through February 3, 2024, so he is not eligible for UI benefits during these two weeks.

DECISION:

The February 23, 2024 (reference 02) UI decision is MODIFIED IN FAVOR OF THE APPELLANT, THE EMPLOYER. Mr. Barron is not able to and available for work from January 21, 2024 through February 3, 2024. Mr. Barron is not eligible for UI benefits from January 21, 2024 through February 3, 2024.
