APPEAL 22A-UI-12771-DB-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 04/17/22
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total, Partial and Temporary Unemployment
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) – Contribution Rates – Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the May 13, 2022 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that found claimant was not eligible for unemployment benefits effective April 17, 2022 due to him still being employed at the same hours and same wages as his original contract of hire. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on July 7, 2022. The claimant participated personally. The employer did not participate. The administrative law judge took administrative notice of the claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant able to and available for work?
Is the claimant eligible for total, partial or temporary unemployment benefits?
Is the employer's account subject to charges?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for this employer on May 28, 2012. He works full-time as a receiver in the distribution center. From April 17, 2022 through April 30, 2022 the claimant was laid off due to lack of work. Claimant earned no wages, vacation pay, or holiday pay during the weeks between April 17, 2022 and April 30, 2022. Claimant was able to and available for work even though he mistakenly reported on his weekly-continued claim filings that he was not.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes as follows:

Iowa Code section 96.4(3)a provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. a. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

Totally unemployed", "partially unemployed", and "temporarily unemployed.

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed "partially unemployed" in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed "temporarily unemployed" if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(2)(a), (b), and (c) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.

(a) However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and section 96.8, subsection 5.

(b) An employer's account shall not be charged with benefits paid to an individual who left the work of the employer voluntarily without good cause attributable to the employer or to an individual who was discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment, or to an individual who failed without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work or to accept suitable work with that employer, but shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

(c) The amount of benefits paid to an individual, which is solely due to wage credits considered to be in an individual's base period due to the exclusion and substitution of calendar quarters from the individual's base period under section 96.23, shall be charged against the account of the employer responsible for paying the workers' compensation benefits for temporary total disability or during a healing period under section 85.33, section 85.34, subsection 1, or section 85A.17, or responsible for paying indemnity insurance benefits.

Claimant was temporarily laid off due to lack of work for the two weeks beginning April 17, 2022 through April 30, 2022 as he did not perform any services or earn any wages. See Iowa Code § 96.1A(37). Benefits are allowed for these two weeks of temporary unemployment, provided the claimant remained otherwise eligible. The employer's account may be charged for benefits paid during that two-week period.

DECISION:

The May 13, 2022 (reference 01) decision is reversed. Claimant was temporarily laid off from this employer beginning April 17, 2022 through April 30, 2022. Benefits are allowed, provided the claimant remained otherwise eligible.
