APPEAL 17A-UI-09233-DG-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 08/06/17
Claimant: Respondent (4R)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting – Layoff Due to Lack of Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.1(113) – Definitions – Separations

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Employer filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated August 30, 2017, (reference 01) that held claimant eligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on September 27, 2017. Claimant participated and was represented by David Nagel, Attorney at Law. Employer participated by Janine Knapp, Associate Director of Human Resources.

ISSUE:

Does the claimant have reasonable assurance of continued employment in the next school term or year?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony and having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant was employed as a teacher for the community college beginning on February 1, 2017 through April 20, 2017. Claimant was hired to work as needed when work was available. Claimant has other regular non-educational institution employment wage credits in the base period. The record is unclear as to whether he is monetarily eligible for benefits based upon the wages from other employers.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant does have reasonable assurance of returning to work the following academic term or year. The claimant also has other non-educational institution wages in the base period, which make him otherwise eligible for benefits.

Iowa Code section 96.4(5)a provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

5. Benefits based on service in employment in a nonprofit organization or government entity, defined in section 96.19, subsection 18, are payable in the same amount, on the same terms and subject to the same conditions as compensation payable on the same basis of other service subject to this chapter, except that:

a. Benefits based on service in an instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity in an educational institution including service in or provided to or on behalf of an educational institution while in the employ of an educational service agency, a government entity, or a nonprofit organization shall not be paid to an individual for any week of unemployment which begins during the period between two successive academic years or during a similar period between two regular terms, whether or not successive, or during a period of paid sabbatical leave provided for in the individual's contract, if the individual has a contract or reasonable assurance that the individual will perform services in any such capacity for any educational institution for both such academic years or both such terms.

Public Law 94-566 provides:

(c) An individual who performs services for an educational institution or agency in a capacity (other than an instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity) shall not be eligible to receive a payment of assistance or a waiting period credit with respect to any week commencing during a period between two successive academic years or terms if:

(1) Such individual performed such services for any educational institution or agency in the first of such academic years or terms; and

(2) There is a reasonable assurance that such individual will perform services for any educational institution or agency in any capacity (other than an instructional, research, or principal administrative capacity) in the second of such academic years or terms.

Iowa Code section 96.4(5)c provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

5. Benefits based on service in employment in a nonprofit organization or government entity, defined in section 96.19, subsection 18, are payable in the same amount, on the same terms and subject to the same conditions as compensation payable on the same basis of other service subject to this chapter, except that:

c. With respect to services for an educational institution in any capacity under paragraph "a" or "b", benefits shall not be paid to an individual for any week of unemployment which begins during an established and customary vacation period or holiday recess if the individual performs the services in the period immediately before such vacation period or holiday recess, and the individual has reasonable assurance that the individual will perform the services in the period immediately following such vacation period or holiday recess.

Iowa Code section 96.4(5)d provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

5. Benefits based on service in employment in a nonprofit organization or government entity, defined in section 96.19, subsection 18, are payable in the same amount, on the same terms and subject to the same conditions as compensation payable on the same basis of other service subject to this chapter, except that:

d. For purposes of this subsection, "educational service agency" means a governmental agency or government entity which is established and operated exclusively for the purpose of providing educational services to one or more educational institutions.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.51(6) provides:

School definitions.

(6) Reasonable assurance, as applicable to an employee of an educational institution, means a written, verbal, or implied agreement that the employee will perform services in the same or similar capacity, which is not substantially less in economic terms and conditions, during the ensuing academic year or term. It need not be a formal written contract. To constitute a reasonable assurance of reemployment for the ensuing academic year or term, an individual must be notified of such reemployment.

The U.S. DOL issued Program Letter No. 5-17 on December 22, 2016, that sets out guidance for the department interpretation of the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA) as it applies to institutions of higher education and part-time, adjunct or contingent faculty. It sets out three factors required for a reasonable assurance determination. First, a genuine offer of employment from a person with authority may be written, oral or implied. Second, the employment offered must be in the same capacity (e.g. professional or non-professional) as held in the previous term. Third, the economic conditions offered may not be "considerably less" than in the prior term. The letter defined "considerably less" as not earning at least 90 percent of the amount earned in the earlier academic year or term. It goes on to examine whether contingencies within the offer are within the employer's control as a means to determine if the claimant has reasonable assurance of continued employment. Circumstances such as enrollment, funding and seniority are not considered to be within the employer's control. The letter requires analysis of the "totality of circumstances" to determine whether it is "highly probable" that there is a job available for claimant the following academic term. It also requires weight be given to the contingency of the offer and if it is "highly probable" that the contingency will be met. https://wdr.doleta.gov/directives/corr_doc.cfm?docn=8999

Where a claimant did not work over the summer for a community college which held a summer session, the Court still denied benefits because of the "summer vacation." Merged Area VII v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 367 N.W.2d 272, 274, 275 (Iowa Ct. App. 1985).

In this case, the claimant does not have other non-educational institution wage credits in the base period. The claimant does have reasonable assurance of continued employment for the 2018 school year but may be otherwise monetarily eligible according to base period wages. As a result, the claimant is considered unemployed and is otherwise eligible for benefits.

DECISION:

The August 30, 2017, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is modified in favor of the appellant. The claimant does have reasonable assurance of returning to work the following academic year or term. Benefits are allowed as long as claimant is monetarily eligible, but this employer's account shall not be charged.

REMAND: The monetary eligibility issue based upon wages from other employers as delineated in the findings of fact is remanded to the Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development for an initial investigation and determination.
