(Administrative Law Judge)

(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.4(3) – Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

James Mosher filed an appeal from a representative's decision dated February 27, 2006, reference 02, which denied benefits effective February 19, 2006 on a finding that he failed to report to his local office as directed. Due notice was issued scheduling the matter for a telephone hearing to be held on March 30, 2006. However, based on information submitted prior to the hearing, a hearing was deemed unnecessary.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: On February 13, 2006, Mr. Mosher was mailed a notice advising that he needed to register for work with Workforce Development. He was advised that the process could be completed on-line or at his local office. Mr. Mosher was advised that he needed to register for work by February 22, 2006. He completed the process on-line on February 20 and received confirmation that the registration was successfully processed.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

At issue in this matter is whether Mr. Mosher reported to his local office as directed. He was given the option of registering for work on-line or in-person and chose to complete the process on-line. Inasmuch as he has received confirmation that the process was successfully completed on February 20, 2006, the administrative law judge concludes that he timely complied with the notice to report. Accordingly, no disqualification is imposed.

DECISION:

The representative's decision dated February 27, 2006, reference 02, is hereby reversed. Mr. Mosher complied with the reporting requirements of the law. Benefits are allowed effective February 19, 2006, provided he satisfies all other conditions of eligibility.
