Claimant

APPEAL NO. 23A-UI-03647-JT-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

SOUTH AMERICAN BEEF INC
Employer

OC: 03/12/23
Claimant: Respondent (2R)

Iowa Code Section 96.3(5) – Duration of Benefits
871 IAC 24.29 – Business Closing

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On April 5, 2023, the employer filed a timely appeal from the March 29, 2023 (reference 01) decision that held the claimant's benefit maximums would be redetermined, based on the deputy's conclusion the claimant was laid off effective March 12, 2023 pursuant to a business closing. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on April 21, 2023. Nathan Schwebach (claimant) participated. Alejandra Vidal-Soler represented the employer and presented additional testimony through Graham Ferguson. Exhibit 1, the employer's appeal packet, was received into evidence. The administrative took official notice of the reference 01 decision and of the IWD decision docketing system (NMRO), which indicates the reference 01 decision is thus far the sole decision entered in connection with the claim.

ISSUE:

Whether the claimant was laid off pursuant to a business closing.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Nathan Schwebach was employed by South American Beef, Inc. as a Logistics Coordinator until February 28, 2023, when the employer discharged him from the employment. The claimant last performed work for the employer on February 27, 2023. The claimant performed his duties at the employer's corporate office located at 1860 – 88th St., West Des Moines, IA 50266. The employer has entered into Chapter 11 "reorganization" bankruptcy proceedings, but continued to conduct business from the 88th Street location where the claimant worked.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.3(5)(a) provides:

- a. Duration of benefits. The maximum total amount of benefits payable to an eligible individual during a benefit year shall not exceed the total of the wage credits accrued to the individual's account during the individual's base period, or sixteen times the individual's weekly benefit amount, whichever is the lesser. The director shall maintain a separate account for each individual who earns wages in insured work. The director shall compute wage credits for each individual by crediting the individual's account with one-third of the wages for insured work paid to the individual during the individual's base period. However, the director shall recompute wage credits for an individual who is laid off due to the individual's employer going out of business at the factory, establishment, or other premises at which the individual was last employed, by crediting the individual's account with one-half, instead of one-third, of the wages for insured work paid to the individual during the individual's base period. Benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the base period wage credits in the individual's account which have not been previously charged, in the inverse chronological order as the wages on which the wage credits are based were paid. However if the state "off" indicator is in effect and if the individual is laid off due to the individual's employer going out of business at the factory, establishment, or other premises at which the individual was last employed, the maximum benefits payable shall be extended to twenty-six times the individual's weekly benefit amount, but not to exceed the total of the wage credits accrued to the individual's account.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.29(2) provides:

(2) Going out of business means any factory, establishment, or other premises of an employer which closes its door and ceases to function as a business; however, an employer is not considered to have gone out of business at the factory, establishment, or other premises in any case in which the employer sells or otherwise transfers the business to another employer, and the successor employer continues to operate the business.

The claimant was not laid off pursuant to a business closing. The employer discharged the claimant. The employer continues to operate from the same location where the claimant performed his work duties. The claimant's benefit maximums will not be redetermined as being based on a layoff pursuant to a business closing. This matter will be remanded to Iowa Workforce Development Benefits Bureau for further action and/or proceedings as the Benefits Bureau deems appropriate.

DECISION:

The March 29, 2023, reference 01, decision is reversed. The claimant was not laid off pursuant to a business closing. The claimant's benefit maximums will not be redetermined as being based on a layoff pursuant to a business closing.

REMAND:

This matter is REMANDED to Iowa Workforce Development Benefits Bureau for further action and/or proceedings as the Benefits Bureau deems appropriate.
