Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On May 4, 2023, claimant filed an appeal from the unemployment insurance decision dated April 19, 2022, (reference 04), that concluded claimant was overpaid Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC) benefits in the amount of $300.00 for the week ending February 6, 2021, because claimant had failed to accurately report earnings while concurrently filing a weekly claim for unemployment insurance benefits for that week. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephonic hearing was held on May 22, 2023. Appeal numbers 23A-UI-04613-PT-T and 23A-UI-04614-PT-T were heard together and created one record. The claimant participated personally. A representative of Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) notified the undersigned prior to the hearing that IWD would not be attending the hearing. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant's appeal is timely.
Whether claimant is overpaid FPUC benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: A decision was mailed to the claimant's correct address of record on April 19, 2022, (reference 04). Claimant received the decision in the mail, but she could not recall precisely when she received the decision.

The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Section by April 29, 2022. However, if the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the appeal period is extended to the next working day. As April 29, 2022, was a Friday, the deadline for claimant to submit her appeal was Friday, April 29, 2022. Claimant electronically submitted her appeal on May 4, 2023, which is after the extended appeal deadline noticed on the decision. Claimant explained that her appeal was untimely because she had mistakenly believed an earlier appeal she filed had resolved this issue. Claimant did not realize until months later that she needed to file a separate appeal to contest the overpayment at issue in this case.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The ten calendar days for appeal begin running on the mailing date. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976). This rule has been construed in Pepsi Cola v. Employment Appeal Board, 465 N.W.2d 674 (Iowa App.1990). The court stated that the United States Postal Service postmark is governing when both a meter mark and postmark are present on the envelope. Pursuant to rules Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.2(96)(1) and Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(96)(1), appeals are considered filed when postmarked, if mailed. Messina v. IDJS, 341 N.W.2d 52 (Iowa 1983).

The record in this case shows that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date the appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

Claimant received the decision on or before the appeal deadline but did not appeal the decision until after the deadline. Claimant's delay was not due to agency error or misinformation or delay of the United States Postal Service. Claimant had a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion but waited until after the deadline to file the appeal. As claimant's appeal was not timely filed pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.6(2), the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal. See, Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979); see also, Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).

DECISION:

The April 19, 2022, (reference 04), unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The appeal in this case was not timely, and the decision of the representative concluding the claimant has been overpaid Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation benefits in the amount of $300.00 remains in effect.
