APPEAL 23A-UI-06005-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

REM IOWA COMMUNITY SERVICES INC
Employer

OC: 04/23/23
Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(26) – Same Hours and Wages
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total and Partial Unemployment
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) – Same Base Period Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On June 12, 2023, the employer filed an appeal from the May 31, 2023, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits based upon the determination that claimant was able to and available for work. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on July 3, 2023. The claimant, Kendra C. Savage, did not participate. The employer, REM Iowa Community Services Inc., participated through hearing representative, Jackie Boudreaux, who did not testify, with testifying witness Alicia Blackford. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant totally, partially or temporarily unemployed?
Is the claimant able to and available for work?
Is the claimant still employed at the same hours and wages?
Is the employer's account subject to charge?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant first became employed as a direct support professional on April 6, 2022. She is paid $14.00 per hour. She remains employed in that role as of the date of the unemployment appeal hearing.

Claimant is a part-time PRN employee, and has been since February 2023. In that role, she is not guaranteed a minimum number of hours each week. The only requirement of employees employed in that status is that they work at least 16 hours every 30 days.

Claimant filed a claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of April 23, 2023. There was no change in claimant's employment status or the hours she was offered to the knowledge of her supervisor, Blackford. Claimant did not initially make weekly continuing claims for the weeks between April 23, 2023, and May 13, 2023. She filed an additional claim for benefits effective May 14, 2023. Iowa Workforce Development issued a decision denying benefits effective May 14, 2023, (reference 03), that remains in force. Since she filed her claim for unemployment insurance benefits effective April 23, 2023, claimant has been offered work in each week. She has worked hours each week.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(26) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(26) Where a claimant is still employed in a part-time job at the same hours and wages as contemplated in the original contract for hire and is not working on a reduced workweek basis different from the contract for hire, such claimant cannot be considered partially unemployed.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(2) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.

(a) However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and section 96.8, subsection 5.

(b) An employer's account shall not be charged with benefits paid to an individual who left the work of the employer voluntarily without good cause attributable to the employer or to an individual who was discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment, or to an individual who failed without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work or to accept suitable work with that employer, but shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

(c) The amount of benefits paid to an individual, which is solely due to wage credits considered to be in an individual's base period due to the exclusion and substitution of calendar quarters from the individual's base period under section 96.23, shall be charged against the account of the employer responsible for paying the workers' compensation benefits for temporary total disability or during a healing period under section 85.33, section 85.34, subsection 1, or section 85A.17, or responsible for paying indemnity insurance benefits.

Since April 23, 2023, claimant has been employed under the same hours and wages as contemplated since her changed employment status in February 2023. Because claimant does not have full-time base period wages and the level of employment is consistent with the base period wage history with this employer, claimant may not be considered partially unemployed. Benefits are denied. Inasmuch as employer is offering the same wages and hours as contemplated at hire, no benefit charges shall be made to its account.

DECISION:

The May 31, 2023, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is REVERSED. Claimant is employed at the same hours and wages as agreed upon at the time of the changed employment status and, therefore, is not partially unemployed. Benefits are denied effective April 23, 2023.
