ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 03/19/23
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22 – Able & Available – Benefits Eligibility Conditions

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Employer filed an appeal from the April 11, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision. A hearing was held on May 9, 2023. The employer appealed the decision issued on May 9, 2023. The Employment Appeal Board remanded the matter in part on the issue of whether the claimant was able to and available for work. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on June 13, 2023. Claimant, Brian Boston, participated personally. Employer, Temp Associates Iowa Inc, participated through Jennifer Schwartz. Employer's Exhibit A was offered and admitted without objection. Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Whether claimant is able to and available for work.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: On February 26, 2023 the claimant suffered from a seizure while at work. He was treated and released back to work by his physician on March 6, 2023 with restrictions that he should not drive, operate heavy machinery or participate in any other activities that may be hazardous in case he had another episode. The claimant had been operating forklift and various maintenance jobs in the position he was working at the time of his seizure. The claimant possessed a forklift certification. The employer, Temp Associates of Iowa did not have a job available for the claimant that would accommodate the restrictions imposed by his medical provider.

Prior to his job at Temp Associates, the claimant worked at Iowa Terminate Pest Control as a pest control technician. The claimant was there for 18 months. He received a special certification to enable him to do that job. The position ended because claimant relocated to Mount Pleasant, Iowa.

Prior to working in pest control, the claimant has worked as a forklift operator, a satellite installer, a sales associate and a manager of sales, a server at a restaurant and a busboy at a restaurant. The claimant has handled customer service, operated hand tools and has knowledge of electrical systems. Due to his seizure, the claimant was unable to operate a vehicle for six months.

At the time of the hearing, the claimant was employed as a team lead at Wal-Mart stores. His duties in this position include supervising cashiers, managing drawers at the end of the night, and greeting customers.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1) provides:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

a. Illness, injury or pregnancy. Each case is decided upon an individual basis, recognizing that various work opportunities present different physical requirements. A statement from a medical practitioner is considered prima facie evidence of the physical ability of the individual to perform the work required. A pregnant individual must meet the same criteria for determining ableness as do all other individuals.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(2) provides:

Benefit eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in which the individual is offering the services.

An individual claiming benefits has the burden of proof that he is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22.

While the claimant had restrictions imposed on him due to his seizure, he had significant work experience that made him employable despite the restrictions. Claimant was able to handle positions that did not require his ability to operate heavy machinery such as customer service, management, and retail. Accordingly, he is eligible for unemployment insurance benefits.

DECISION:

The April 11, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision affirmed. Claimant was able to and available for work. Benefits are allowed.
