APPEAL 22A-UI-15910-SC-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 04/24/22
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On August 8, 2022, Cheryl A. Hageman (claimant) filed an appeal from the August 5, 2022, reference 01, unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based upon the determination they voluntarily quit employment with Durham D & M LLC (employer) and failed to show good cause attributable to the employer. The parties were properly notified about the hearing held by telephone on September 9, 2022, and consolidated with the hearing for appeal 22A-UI-15911-SC-T. The claimant participated personally. The employer did not respond to the hearing notice and did not participate. No exhibits were admitted into the record.

ISSUE:

Did the claimant voluntarily quit employment with good cause attributable to the employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant was employed part-time as a Bus Driver beginning on October 13, 2017, and she was separated from employment on May 27, 2022.

On May 26, the claimant made some disparaging comments over the dispatch radio regarding a situation with a co-worker. The next day the claimant was discussing the incident with her supervisor and another co-worker. The supervisor stated that she would not have made the comments but would have called the co-worker into the office to discuss it. The claimant was frustrated and elected to quit her employment.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the following reasons, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25 provides, in relevant part:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

...

(6) The claimant left as a result of an inability to work with other employees.

...

(21) The claimant left because of dissatisfaction with the work environment.

(22) The claimant left because of a personality conflict with the supervisor.

(28) The claimant left after being reprimanded.

The claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). The claimant's decision to quit because she did not agree with the supervisor about various issues was not for a good cause reason attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The August 5, 2022, reference 01, unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as she has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible.
