Section 96.3-7 – Overpayment of Benefits

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Jody L. DeMoss, filed a timely appeal from an unemployment insurance decision dated January 10, 2006, reference 02, determining that she was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice was issued, a telephone hearing was held on January 24, 2006, with the claimant participating. This appeal was consolidated with appeal number 05A-UI-12682-RT, for the purposes of the hearing with the consent of the claimant. There was no employer or respondent noticed in this appeal and the employer in the appeal with which this appeal was consolidated, Maytag Services LLC, did not participate in the hearing because the employer did not call in a telephone number, either before the hearing or during the hearing, where any witnesses could be reached for the hearing, as instructed in the Notice of Appeal. The administrative law judge takes official notice of Iowa Workforce Development Department unemployment insurance records for the claimant.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony of the witness and having examined all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant filed for unemployment insurance benefits effective November 20, 2005 and began receiving benefits which continued thereafter. The claimant received unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $1,112.00 as follows: $278.00 per week for four weeks from benefit week ending November 26, 2005 to benefit week ending December 17, 2005. This amount is now shown as overpaid and is the subject of this appeal. In a decision in appeal number 05A-UI-12682-RT, the administrative law judge concluded that the claimant was not entitled to such benefits because her separation from her employer, Maytag Services LLC, was disqualifying.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The question presented by this appeal is whether the claimant is overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $1,112.00 for four weeks between November 20, 2005 and December 17, 2005. The administrative law judge concludes that the claimant is overpaid that amount for that period.

Iowa Code section 96.3-7 provides:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The administrative law judge concludes that the claimant has received unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $1,112.00 since separating from her employer on or about October 26, 2005 and filing for such benefits effective November 20, 2005. In appeal number 05A-UI-12682-RT, the administrative law judge concluded that the claimant was not entitled to receive such unemployment insurance benefits because her separation from her employer, Maytag Services LLC, was disqualifying. Accordingly, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant has received unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $1,112.00 to which she is not entitled and she is, therefore, overpaid such benefits. The administrative law judge further concludes that these benefits must be recovered in accordance with the provisions of Iowa law.

DECISION:

The representative's decision of January 10, 2006, reference 02, is affirmed. The claimant, Jody L. DeMoss, is overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $1,112.00 for four weeks between November 20, 2005 and December 17, 2005.
