OKELA L BARNETTE
Claimant

APPEAL 23A-UI-08200-ED-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OM SHREE SHANT LLC
Employer

OC: 7/30/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 96.5(2)A – Discharge for Misconduct

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Okela Barnette, filed an appeal from the August 21, 2023 (reference 01), unemployment insurance, decision that denied benefits based upon her voluntary quit. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on September 27, 2023. Claimant, Okela Barnette, participated and testified. Employer, Om Shree Shant LLC, participated through Miranda Butts. Claimant's Exhibit 1, 2, and 3 were offered and admitted without objection. Employer's Exhibit A, B, and C were offered and admitted without objection. The Administrative Law Judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Was the separation a layoff, discharge for misconduct or voluntary quit without good cause attributable to the employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was hired beginning May 2021 as a full-time General Manager. This employer is a Dunkin Donuts store. Her immediate supervisor was Miranda Butts. The last day the claimant physically worked in the job was August 1, 2023. Ms. Barnette submitted her resignation on August 1, 2023. At the time of the resignation, the claimant texted her supervisor that she was resigning because she was upset that the manager was questioning her work ethic and that she felt her manager was harassing her. The claimant did not provide any dates of incidents which she was concerned about. Ms. Barnette did not report her concerns to anyone within Dunkin Donuts such as the branch owner or a different manager prior to submitting her resignation.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25 provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(21))

The claimant left because of dissatisfaction with the work environment.

Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). "Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Indus. Relations Comm'n, 277 So.2d 827 (Fla. Dist. Ct. App. 1973). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

In this case, the claimant submitted her resignation because she was upset with her direct manager, Miranda Butts. She did not report any of her concerns regarding Ms. Butts with anyone within Dunkin Donuts in an attempt to resolve the matter prior to resigning. It is reasonable to the average person to attempt to resolve issues by reporting them prior to submitting their resignation.

While claimant's leaving may have been based upon good personal reasons, it was not for a good-cause reason attributable to the employer according to Iowa law. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The August 21, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The claimant voluntarily left her employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as she has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible.
