ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 12/19/21
Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able & Available for Work
Iowa Code § 96.5(3)a – Failure to Accept Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On May 9, 2022, Iowa Staffing, Inc., (employer/appellant) filed an appeal from the May 4, 2022, reference 02, unemployment insurance decision that concluded that the claimant was eligible for benefits. A telephone hearing was held at on June 23, 2022 pursuant to due notice. The claimant, Marlene Yacoub, did not participate. The employer Iowa Staffing Inc., participated through Alejandra Rocha, Office Manager.

A defect in the initial notice of hearing was discovered and the matter was reset for July 20, 2022. The claimant did not participate. The employer participated through Alejandra Rocha, Office Manager. Employer's Exhibit 1 was admitted into the record. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Was the claimant able to and available for work?

Was a suitable offer of work made to the claimant? If so, did the claimant fail to accept and was the failure to do so for a good cause reason?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant's began working for employer on March 22, 2022. Claimant last assignment was as a full-time laborer with Katecho making $17.00 per hour. This assignment ended on March 31, 2022, and claimant was offered similar jobs with Kemin at $17.00 per hour and Neo Gen at $20.00. Claimant refused both jobs and stopped contacting the employer for further work. The employer removed the claimant off of their payroll system as of April 19, 2022, as a voluntary quit. Claimant has not been in contact with the employer since early April 2022.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.4(3)a provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. a. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code section 96.5(3)a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

3. Failure to accept work. If the department finds that an individual has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work when directed by the department or to accept suitable work when offered that individual. The department shall, if possible, furnish the individual with the names of employers which are seeking employees. The individual shall apply to and obtain the signatures of the employers designated by the department on forms provided by the department. However, the employers may refuse to sign the forms. The individual's failure to obtain the signatures of designated employers, which have not refused to sign the forms, shall disqualify the individual for benefits until requalified. To requalify for benefits after disqualification under this subsection, the individual shall work in and be paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

a. (1) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the department shall consider the degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety, and morals, the individual's physical fitness, prior training, length of unemployment, and prospects for securing local work in the individual's customary occupation, the distance of the available work from the individual's residence, and any other factor which the department finds bears a reasonable relation to the purposes of this paragraph. Work is suitable if the work meets all the other criteria of this paragraph and if the gross weekly wages for the work equal or exceed the following percentages of the individual's average weekly wage for insured work paid to the individual during that quarter of the individual's base period in which the individual's wages were highest:

(a) One hundred percent, if the work is offered during the first five weeks of unemployment.

(b) Seventy-five percent, if the work is offered during the sixth through the twelfth week of unemployment.

(c) Seventy percent, if the work is offered during the thirteenth through the eighteenth week of unemployment.

(d) Sixty-five percent, if the work is offered after the eighteenth week of unemployment.

(2) However, the provisions of this paragraph shall not require an individual to accept employment below the federal minimum wage.

Iowa Code section 96.5(3)b provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

3. Failure to accept work. If the department finds that an individual has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work when directed by the department or to accept suitable work when offered that individual. The department shall, if possible, furnish the individual with the names of employers which are seeking employees. The individual shall apply to and obtain the signatures of the employers designated by the department on forms provided by the department. However, the employers may refuse to sign the forms. The individual's failure to obtain the signatures of designated employers, which have not refused to sign the forms, shall disqualify the individual for benefits until requalified. To requalify for benefits after disqualification under this subsection, the individual shall work in and be paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

b. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, no work shall be deemed suitable and benefits shall not be denied under this chapter to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

(1) If the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute;

(2) If the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;

(3) If as a condition of being employed, the individual would be required to join a company union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization.

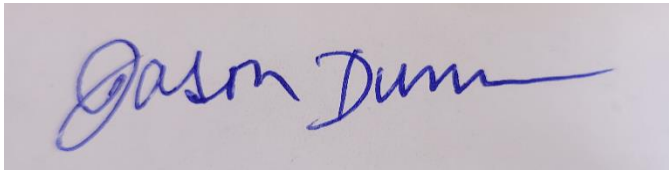

After the claimant's assignment at Katecho ending on March 31, 2022, she was offered similar work for two other employers for the same or greater pay that she was being paid at Katecho. The claimant failed to seek other assignments and stopped contacting the employer after early April 2022. Benefits are denied effective April 5, 2022.

DECISION:

The May 4, 2022, reference 02, unemployment insurance decision is reversed. Claimant failed to accept two suitable offers of work from her employer and subsequently stopped contacting them for work. Benefits are denied effective April 5, 2022.

REMAND:

The claimant's subsequent separation from Iowa Staffing, Inc., is remanded to the Benefits Bureau of IWD for review and determination. The claimant stopped contacting the employer around April 5, 2022, and failed to appear for orientation and has not called or requested other work since that date. The claimant's separation indicates a voluntary quit without good cause attributable to her employer.
