DECISION

OC: 06/18/23
Claimant: Appellant (4)

Iowa Code §96.5(1)- Voluntary Quit
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(21)-Force Resignation

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On July 13, 2023, the claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the July 10, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on claimant being discharged on June 14, 2023 for conduct not in the best interest of the employer. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on August 1, 2023. Claimant participated. Employer did not participate.

ISSUE:

Was the separation a layoff, discharge for misconduct, or voluntary quit without good cause?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for employer on March 22, 2023. Claimant last worked as a full-time Fulfillment Center Associate One. Claimant separated from employment on June 14, 2023, when he resigned.

In May 2023, claimant contacted the employer's customer service department. Claimant's contact was not work related and was not during his work hours. Claimant became unsatisfied with his customer service experience and filed a complaint with the employer regarding his experience.

On June 14, 2023, claimant was contacted by the employer's investigator. The investigator informed claimant they received complaints about his behavior during the customer service incident in May 2023. During the conversation with the investigator, the investigator informed claimant that if claimant did not quit his position with the employer that he would make sure claimant was fired. Later that day claimant submitted his resignation in the employer's computer system.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the following reasons the administrative law judge concludes the claimant left employment with good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code §96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(21) provides:

Voluntary quit with good cause attributable to the employer and separations not considered to be voluntary quits. The following are reasons for a claimant leaving employment with good cause attributable to the employer:

(21) The claimant was compelled to resign when given the choice of resigning or being discharged. This shall not be considered a voluntary leaving.

Iowa unemployment insurance law disqualifies claimants who voluntarily quit employment without good cause attributable to the employer or who are discharged for work-connected misconduct. Iowa Code §§ 96.5(1) and 96.5(2)a. The burden of proof rests with the employer to show that the claimant voluntarily left the employment. Irving v. Empl. App. Bd., 15-0104, 2016 WL 3125854, (Iowa June 3, 2016). A voluntary quitting of employment requires that an employee exercise a voluntary choice between remaining employed or terminating the employment relationship. Wills v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 447 N.W.2d 137, 138 (Iowa 1989); Peck v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 492 N.W.2d 438, 440 (Iowa Ct. App. 1992).

In this case claimant was notified by the employer that he was being investigated for a complaint. During the investigation claimant was informed he could resign or the investigator would make sure the claimant was fired. Claimant had no intention of quitting his employment prior to being told he would be fired if he did not quit. The employer did not appear to present evidence that claimant's separation was voluntary. When an employee quits in lieu of discharge, it is an involuntary quit since the employee really had no choice in the matter. The Iowa Administrative Code Regulations specifically treats this type of a separation as a quit with good cause attributable to the employer. 871 IAC 24.26(21). Benefits are allowed.

DECISION:

The July 10, 2023, (reference 01) decision is modified in favor of appellant. Claimant was not discharged from employment for disqualifying misconduct. Claimant left employment for good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are allowed, provided he is otherwise eligible. Any benefits withheld shall be paid to claimant.
