Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able and Available

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On June 17, 2023, the claimant filed an appeal from the unemployment insurance decision dated June 14, 2023, (Reference 04) that denied unemployment insurance benefits. Notice of hearing was mailed to the parties' last known addresses of record for a telephone hearing to be held at 9:05 a.m. on July 11, 2023. The claimant participated personally. The employer did not participate. The hearing in this matter was held together with the hearing in Appeal No. 23A-UI-06197-DS-T. No exhibits were offered or admitted to the record. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Is the claimant able to work and available to work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge finds that:

The claimant is participating in a registered apprenticeship with this employer. The claimant participated in an unpaid training course related to his work during the week ending April 29, 2023. The claimant was not available for work during the week ending April 22, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant was not able to and available for work. Benefits are denied.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3)a provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. a. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1), (2) provide in pertinent part:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in which the individual is offering the services.

An individual claiming benefits has the burden of proof that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22.

The claimant was not separated from his employer during the week ending April 29, 2023. He was not totally, partially, or temporarily unemployed within the meaning of the law. The claimant was participating in a training course and was unavailable for work. The claimant has not established that he was able to work and available for work. Accordingly, he is not eligible for unemployment insurance benefits.

DECISION:

The June 14, 2023, (Reference 04) unemployment insurance decision denying benefits is AFFIRMED. The claimant was not able and available for work and was not unemployed within the meaning of the law.
